WIND AND HAIL STORM SWEEPS THE CITY; LIGHTNING BOLTS START MANY FIRES

TWICE FAILED TO CARRY OUT OATH TO KILL FAMILY

Illinoisans Marked for Death Appeal for Help After Night Attacks.

FIRED AT IN DARKNESS

Member of Besieged Family Answered Shot and Heard Man Groan.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ALTO PASS, July 26.—As the result of an old grudge and a recent quarrel, during which an oath was made to kill the entire family, two attempts have been made in as many weeks to murder the male members of the Lingle family—prosperous farmers living seven miles east of here.

About two weeks ago Ernest Lingle, the 18-year-old son, was called to the door after dark by two men, both of whom shot at him as he stood in the doorway. He returned the fire, wounding one.

Last night the attempt was repeated by calling out Dr. Fred Lingle. He frustrated the attempt by phoning for help. The trouble is said to be the result of a feud, but the Lingles refuse to give any information.

Fired on at Night.

Mrs. Lingle, the mother of Dr. Fred Lingle and Ernest Lingle, is ill and has been for some time. Two weeks ago Ernest, a youth of 18, was sitting up with his mother, when he heard a noise as of some one prowling about the house. With his shotgun in his hand he opened the door. As he stepped out on the porch two shots were fired. He returned the fire in the direction of the flash in the darkness and he heard a groan and an oath, followed by the noise of running feet. As the figures passed where the light streamed out of the door he saw two persons, whom he declares he recognized, but whose names he will not tell.

Found Pool of Blood.

The shooting alarmed his mother, and for fear of the effect any further excitement might have upon her, no effort was made to follow the would-be assassins that night. The next morning a pool of blood was found behind the house.

Dr. Fred Lingle, who is a recent graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of St. Louis, and who was married recently, also lives with his mother. Last night he was the only man about the place, and late in the evening, just after he had retired, he heard noises, evidently made in the hope of attracting someone from the house. When no member of the family appeared the men tried to raise one of the windows on the porch and a ladder was also placed against the house.

Instead of going out to investigate Dr. Lingle phoned for help, which soon arrived. As the rescuers approached the house the marauders heard them approaching and hastily fled. Again the figures of two men were seen, but the rescuers did not recognize them.

Won't Give Any Names.

Dr. Lingle was closely questioned today and asked for the names of the persons who seem bent on killing the members of his family, but he refused to mention any names or to even suggest who it might be, although giving the impression that he knew.

Last winter a Prof. Chard taught school in this city. He lives at Makanda, some miles from here. At that time there was some gossip about a feud in which the Lingle family was said to be engaged and Chard said that he knew persons who had threatened to wipe out the entire family. When pressed for the names, he refused to give any.

The women members of the Lingle family are greatly alarmed and are in favor of taking legal steps, but so far nothing has been done.

MONAHAN GETS CHARGES.

Sergeant Will Be Tried Tuesday Afternoon.

Sergt. Patrick Monahan was served with a copy of the charges against him Thursday morning in Acting Chief of Police Gillapsy's office. He will be tried at a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners at 1 p. m. Tuesday. He is accused of protecting panel workers, one of the notable women being Ollie Roberts, who has left St. Louis.

Monahan appealed his case to the Circuit Court, saying that the Police Board had no right to try him on the charges, but Judge Douglas refused him a writ of prohibition, and a special meeting of the commissioners will be held to consider his case.

Spine Injured in Fall.

Joseph Cerain, a laborer, 45 years old, fell from the top of a boathouse, which is being wrecked, near the foot of Lynch street, 30 feet to the ground, and injured his spine seriously. He was taken home by an ambulance, refusing to go to the City Side Dispensary.

BANK TELLER'S WIFE, ILL, HAS FAITH IN HIM

Defaulting Bank Employe Was Seen in Denver by Friend on Wednesday.

WATCHING THE TRAINS

Mysterious "Leni," Who Wrote to Defaulter, Is Wife of Wealthy Texan.

While the police are searching the whole State of Colorado for Charles H. Everly, the absconding teller of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., his wife, stricken with nervous prostration, still declares her faith in him. Were she able to rise from her bed and knew where in Denver to find him, she would be at his side as quickly as a train could carry her there.

Officials of the bank, from whom Everly stole, according to his own confession, $5000, and officers of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., on which corporation must fall the loss due to the embezzler's wrongdoing, declare that in all their years of experience they have never seen such a case of devotion in the face of circumstances that they consider would shake the faith of almost any human being.

Mrs. Everly simply says and reiterates: "He is my husband. He has done wrong. I know that. But that he is unfaithful to me I will never believe until he tells me so himself."

Mrs. Everly is in an extremely serious condition as the result of her husband's conduct. She is so ill that two doctors are in charge of her case—Drs. J. P. Heur and A. H. Sippy.

Mrs. Every Quite Ill.

They realized Wednesday that Mrs. Everly was so ill that she must have perfect quiet, and it was by their orders that communication with the house was practically cut off. It is not believed that Mrs. Everly will show much improvement until she learns definitely of her husband's whereabouts, or that he is on his way back to St. Louis. Even for him to come back under arrest would be preferable to the suffering wife than her present state of uncertainty.

When after her husband's disappearance, a letter came for him from a woman she believed that it was an innocent, friendly correspondence relating to a vacation trip in which she was to have a part. Portions of the letter that aroused suspicion in the minds of everyone who read the letter or knew of its contents, did not move her at all.

Later when the fact was established that the woman who wrote the letter had been a constant correspondent of

BLACKMAILER KEPT DIARY AND WROTE POETRY

Memorandum Book Taken From Louis Suhrheinrich Has Quotations.

ADDRESSES OF WOMEN

They Are Under the Heading "Correspondents" and Give Street Numbers.

Entries in Diary of Blackmailer.

Feb. 15, 1901—Met M. B. (Mayme Bailey.

June 30, 1901—Left Evansville for St. Louis.

Nov. 30, 1901—Returned to Evansville.

May 2, 1903—Engaged to be married. Celebrated the day by by getting on a great hallelujah.

Oct. 1, 1903—Received last letter, M. B.

Oct. 4, 1903—Personally introduced to Blanche Walsh, starring in Count Tolstoy's "Resurrection" in St. Louis.

Oct. 6, 1903—Received first "pill."

No date—Fifteen feet up, 20 feet down. Will have that cat in hell in ten minutes.

Louis Suhrheinrich, 18 years old, who has confessed he wrote a threatening letter to Mrs. Theresa Bernero, 60 years old, a wealthy widow, demanding that she give him $500 on penalty of her life, is held by the police on a warrant charging him with embezzling $70 from Stephens & Rohlfing, grocers, at 900 North Taylor avenue, where he was formerly employed as a clerk and collector.

Chief Desmond said Thursday that the attention of the Federal authorities will be called to the Bernero letter with a view to having the youth prosecuted in the United States Courts. If the Government does not proceed against him for writing the letter he will have to go to trial on the embezzlement charge.

Suhrheinrich was closely questioned by Chief of Detectives Desmond Thursday as to his possible connection with a threatening letter demanding money from D. R. Francis. Gov. Francis, through his secretary, showed this letter to the police on May 19 last, several days after he received it.

Read of Letter in Papers.

Suhrheinrich says that he left St. Louis for Kansas City May 15, and that the first he knew of the Francis letter was when he read about it in the Kansas City newspapers. The place where Gov. Francis was to meet the letter writer was in St. Louis County, near Delmar Garden.

Suhrheinrich says that he spent much of his time at Delmar Gardn, but that he has not been there since May 15.

Besides the names of many St. Louis men of wealth, Suhrheinrich's memorandum book, taken from him when he was arrested, contains under the heading "correspondents," the names of 40 young women, several of whom are daughters of prominent Italian families. In each case the address accompanies the name.

Written in ink after this list are the words:

"Amore e vendetta." This is Italian for "Love and revenge," a motto widely quoted as that of the mysterious "black hand" organization.

Toasts and Poetry.

The book also contains many sentiments and toasts copied from magazines and newspapers. A verse which Suhrheinrich always signs in his own reads:

Here's to the man that put on the lid.
Though most of us thought 'twas only a kid.
But all will cheer and their hats will doff
To the man that will come and take the lid off.

In the list of Suhrheinrich's correspondents is the name of Mayme Bailey of Evansville, Ind. In his diary, which covers several pages of the book, she is referred to as M. B. He says that he was engaged to Marry Miss Bailey but that she is now the wife of another.

One of the entries in his diary reads: "Received my firsts 'pill' Oct. 6, 1903."

Referring to this entry Suhrheinrich said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"That doesn't mean that I am an opium smoker and that I use any drug. A railroad man took me out one night after I had met him at the Imperial Theater. He showed me over the Terminal system and we separated at Madison, Ill. I was afraid I might get hurt and I borrowed a revolver from a negro. I dropped the gun out of my pocket and was wounded in the leg. When I put that in my diary I called the bullet a 'pill.'"

"I have never done anything like this before," he said to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "I got the idea last Sunday when I read an article about the 'black hand.' Tuesday morning I went out to Forest Park and wrote the letter to Mrs. Bernero. I used a fountain pen and rested the paper on a magazine.

"I don't know what I would have done with the money if I had got it. I didn't have any plans at all. I guess I would have traveled and seen some of the world, but I don't know whether I would have gone east or west."

DIVORCEE WHO SOON MARRIED MUST DEFEND HER DIVORCE IN COURT

Former Chorus Girl, Now Bride of Man Who Wooed Her Before Separation, Cited to Show Why Decree Should Not Be Set Aside.

Mrs. Olivia Weinheimer, who was Carmen Mayer of the Delmar chorus last summer ,and who obtained a divorce from Frank Hawkins less than three weeks ago, being married July 15 to Charles Weinheimer, will have to explain to Judge Douglas, who granted the divorce, why she did not tell him that she was going to get married again.

Judge Douglas isssued an order Thursday calling upon Mrs. Weinheimer to show cause next Thursday why the decree of divorce should not be set aside.

If the decree is set aside, the marriage of the woman to Weinheimer, with whom she has been living at 3301 South Broadway, will be nullified.

When Judge Douglas learned that Mrs. Hawkins, given a divorce by him, had married Weinheimer within a week, he recalled that when she was on the witness stand he had asked her if she had an intention of getting married again and that she had said that she had no such intention. He had difficulty in reconciling the fact of the second marriage with the statement of Mrs. Hawkins, and the issuance of the order was the result.

Mrs. Hawkins became acquainted with Weinheimer when she was a member of the Delmar chorus. He was employed on the stage as an electrician. Last winter she toured Cuba and Old Mexico. They corresponded and he wrote to her that when she was free they would be married. She returned a few weeks ago and filed suit for divorce. Her husband did not contest it.

Mrs. Weinheimer is now appearing at a summer garden at Destrehan street and Broadway, where her husband is an electrician.

GIRL'S BROWN HAIR STOLEN ON STREET

A man in a light suit, wearing a black stiff hat, clipped a braid of brown hair from the head of Hazel Fisher, aged 15, of 3917 North Nineteenth street, at Broadway and Lucas avenue Thursday morning.

Miss Fisher felt the tug of the hand that seized her hair. As she turned about, the clipper dropped the portion of the braid he had cut from her head and ran west on Lucas avenue.

Miss Fisher did not realize what had happened until she saw her hair ribbon on the ground at her feet, and the man was gone before she could call for help.

Miss Fisher is employed as a clerk in the office of Dr. J. Taylor, room 311 Commercial Building. She said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"I became very nervous as soon as I picked up my hair ribbon and saw that a part of my braid had been clipped off, but there was no policeman near and I was afraid to run after the man. He was looking back and laughing at me."

HIS NOSE-BLEED CAUSES RIOT CALL

Alex Gilmore, a negro, has nosebleed periodically and when he rushed into his home at 724 South Sixth street Thursday morning and exclaimed to his old aunt, Mandy Hickman, that he had been shot in the nose, she rushed to Policeman Sicking, who turned in a riot alarm.

Armed patrolmen, about twenty strong hastened to the scene in a patrol wagon and the neighborhood was frightened.

The officers seized Gilmore and sent him to the City Dispensary, leaving his disgusted relative to comment on the fact that "that fool nigger was jus' projeck'in me." She insists that she thought her nephew was shot, and so did the police.

ST. LOUIS GOOD SUMMER RESORT

Weather Here Will Be Cool for a Few Days.

More of the same kind of weather is the promise for the next day or so in the vicinity of St. Louis. In other parts of the country the weather is as hot as—well, very hot, but moderation continues to characterize St. Louis conditions.

Thursday's official forecast: "Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; nearly stationary temperature; variable winds."

Heat of abnormal intensity prevails in the interior of the Pacific states. The temperature Wednesday in the interior of California was 110 and in Idaho it was 104.

ONE MAN IS KILLED OTHERS ARE INJURED BY FLYING DEBRIS

Seven Fires Caused in Fifteen Minutes by the Electrical Disturbance and in All Sections of City People Are Frightened by Lightning.

A terrific wind and rain storm, which struck the city at 1:30 p. m. Thursday did heavy damage in all sections. Wires and sheds and a few houses were blown down. One man was blown from his wagon and under an engine and killed. Others were hurt by flying signs. The wind, which blew 30 miles an hour, carried signs and debris, and many had narrow escapes from death or serious injury. In many parts of the city hailstones fell.

The storm was especially severe in the West End, the northwestern and southwestern parts of the city. There was an incessant play of the most vivid lightning. There were seven fires started in different parts of the city within 15 minutes after the storm struck, all caused by the electrical disturbance. One of them necessitated a second alarm.

Heavily charged trolley wires wre struck by lightning in the downtown section and fell to the street, causing terror to pedestrians and menacing the lives of all who came near them. The rainfall was severe for a time. The fall registered was .39 of an inch.

A bolt of lightning threw a large crowd at Sixth and Olive streets into a panic at 1:30. Many of those who were frightened were women hurrying to escape the violence of the storm.

Just after the rain began to fall there was a long, heavy peal of thunder. A moment later lightning rent the sky and there was a deafening crash immediately over the heads of pedestrians near the Missouri Pacific ticket office in the Commercial Building.

There was a blinding flash and a ball of fire leaped along an electric light wire running westward from a point on Olive street 50 feet east of Sixth street.

It continued its flight until it reached a point where the electric light wire intersected a heavy feed wire of the United Railways Co.

The big trolley current cable snapped and the rubber insulation on it caught fire in an instant.

The cable blazed for 60 feet of its length and fell splattering and sizzling into the street. An alarm of fire was turned in and Chief Swingley and four fire companies responded.

The fire was extinguished before any damage to property or pedestrians was done.

Delmar Chorus in Panic.

The chorus of the Delmar Stock Co. broke ranks and fled in flight when the storm broke over the theater at the garden. The girls became intensely nervous when vivid flashes of lightning came, followed instantly by thunder. The girls hid at the back of the stage. They had just begun a rehearsal of the Chinese number in the "Belle of New York," next week's attraction. The stage manager found them too nervous to sing and the rehearsal was discontinued.

The storm was fierce in the Delmar section. The peals of thunder were deafening. The flashes of lightning, coming only seconds apart, kept a streaky chain of light in the heavens.

The chorus girls were not the only persons frightened. The severity of the storm scared many of the residents of the section.

So far as could be learned from Delmar no houses were blown down. However, the rainfall was heavier than at any previous time this year and the wind blew harder than at any previous summer storm.

The storm's effect was felt greatly in the neighborhood of the Hamilton Hotel. There the lightning struck terror to the hotel guests, while the thunder was also a constant reminder. The rain fell in torrents.

As far as Grand avenue and Gravois road the storm was equally as terrifying. Screen doors were blown from houses, awnings were ripped into shreds and carried into the air. The thunder and lightning were almost simultaneous. Persons in the neighborhood thought something had been struck.

Farther south at 7700 Manchester road, the storm was much milder.

The Suburban Garden suffered little by the storm. Some small branches were blown from trees by the high wind, but no great damage was done.

A black storm cloud came towards Clayton in the afternoon. It was most threatening. The worst storm of the year seemed to be about to break over the city. It passed over, however, towards St. Louis and the effect was little felt. The rainfall was fairly heavy in Clayton. The wind blew a stiff breeze. There was a slight fall of hail.

An unidentified negro, who had been blown from his wagon by the wind, was run over by a fire engine and killed at Grand avenue and Cherokee street about 1:30 p. m. The engine was en route to a fire caused by the stor mwhen the accident occurred.

A two-horse express wagon belonging to S. Trease, an expressman, broke a plate glass window in the Imperial Pharmacy, 3746 Morgan street. The team became frightened when the storm came up and ran away. The tongue of the wagon broke the window. The value is between $50 and $75. No one was hurt.

Wires blown down at Eighth and Walnut streets were a source of danger to pedestrians. Linemen were set to work immediately repairing the breaks.

The same trouble existd at Fourteenth street and Clark avenue. Live wires dangled in the streets. Several persons had narrow escapes from electrocution until linemen shut off the power.

A team of horses belonging to the N. O. Nelson Manufacturing Co., left by their driver at Lafayette and Ohio avenues, while hes sought refuge from the rain, ran away and collided with a street car at Park and Ohio avenues. The tongue of the wagon pierced the side of the street car, and the horses were thrown under the car. Both horses were seriously hurt.

The cornice of the two-story house at 2227 Gravois avenue was blown away by the wind and knocked down a telephone wire. The second floor of the house was occupied by the Long and Bonham families.

Flag Pole Red Hot.

A bolt of lightning struck and displaced the flagstaff on the grocery store of Smith Bros., at 3501 Iowa avenue. The staff was of iron and it was red hot when it fell. It struck a wooden cornice, setting the building on fire.

The same bolt broke a window in the residence of C. C. James at 3450 California avenue.

Lightning caused a small blaze in the cellar of George Lennertson's saloon, 709 Washington avenue, during the storm. The lightning struck an electric wire, causing a spark to ignite rubbish in the cellar. The damage was slight, but the smoke and the clanging of the fire engines caused a scare in the restaurant of the Fischer company, 711 Washington avenue. There were about twenty persons dining there at the time. They all rushed out, leaving their meals half eaten.

Lightning caused fires within a few minutes of each other about 1:30 p. m. at Second and Lombard streets, Hamilton and Etzel avenues, Olive street and Channing avenue and Hickory street and Virginia avenue. In each case the damage was slight.

ILLINOIS POSSE SEEKS DESPARADO

Bloodhounds Trail Former St. Louisan, Alleged Leader of Negro Bandits.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MOUNDS, Ill., July 26.—An armed posse and bloodhounds are searching the country for the leader of a gang of colored robbers. The fugitive is Dave Hill, who, it is alleged, has been robbing residences, depots and saloons for the past five years.

The gang is supposed to be the one which robbed the Big Four and Illinois Central depots at Mound City last month, as well as the postoffice and a dozen residences here—five in one night.

Hill dragged Mrs. Casper, aged 70, from her bed and after beating her robbed the place. Hill is well armed and is considered a desperado. He formerly lived in St. Louis, and is said to have a long criminal record e sewhere. He was hidden in a wood un il yes rday, when he got away. His family slipped food to him until they were arrested.

To Hear Ice Trust Evidence.

Circuit Attorney Sager has been notified by the Clerk of the St. Louis Circuit Court that Attorney Clifford B. Allen will not as commissioner take depositions in the ouster proceedings recently instituted against the Polar Wave Ice Co. Mr. Sager was absent from the city Thursday and the date of the hearing will not be set until his return.

Falls Into Quarry Pond.

John Gorey of 3706 Natural Bridge road fell into the Fruin-Bambrick quarry pond on St. Louis avenue Thursday afternoon. Although badly hurt, he swam to the edge of the pond and was rescued. He was taken to the City Hospital with contusions.

YOUTHS BURIED UNDER TONS OF TIMBER SAVED

Collapse of St. Charles Street Building Leaves Them Pinioned.

THEY DIRECT WORKERS

Firemen Toil With Tottering Remnants of Floors Above Them.

Two youthful leather workers were hurled from the third floor to the cellar and buried under tons of debris when the second and third floors of the American Oak Leather Co., 512 St. Charles street, fell at 7:05 a. m. Thursday. The boys were partially protected by timbers that arched over them. Their words, at first brave efforts to tell the firemen how to reach them, turned to cries of agony as the weight of joists and timbers pinioned them to the cellar floor.

The youths, Iram Gibble, aged 18, and Bayard Watson, 16, were rescued two hours after the collapse and sent to the City Dispensary. Both were severely bruised and half suffocated, but neither was fatally hurt. A joist had fallen over them in such a way that, while other pieces of the wreckage pressed on their bodies, they were spared the full weight of the mass directly above them.

The other 25 employes escaped because they were in the front part of the building, which did not fall. They descended by the fire escape, and some were rescued by ladders. The loss to the leather company in damage to stock will be slight, as there is a great salvage in leather. The loss to the building, owned by the Van Studdiford estate, has not been estimated. The noise of the crash was heard blocks away.

Relieved Pressure Too Late.

The employes of the leather store reported for work at 7 as usual Thursday. John Wieland of 2918 Gravois avenue, foreman, was one of the first to ride to the third floor in the elevator. As he passed the second floor he saw that the second floor seemed to sag a few inches. As he passed on to third floor, he noticed it sagging also. He at once warned workmen to keep off the rear part of the two floors.

The two floors were stocked with thousands of pounds of leather cut into soles and other merchandise. The weight was too heavy for the floor, Wieland believed. He was just ordering the men to transfer some of the weight to the forward part of the building, when the terrifying crash came.

Thousands of persons heard the rumor that two boys were buried in the cellar and the alley and surrounding streets were crowded.

"Are they still alive? Will they be saved?" thousands asked, as each person appeared from the building.

There was a great shout when it was announced that both were safe.

MISSOURI SENDS HYBRID CROWD TO MEET BRYAN

Every Element Ever Heard of in State Democracy on Committee.

FOLK KEEPS HIS PLACE

Opposition to His Prominence Promptly Sat Upon by New Yorkers.

Every faction of the Missouri Democracy—every element that has figured in the councils of the organization in the past 20 years—is represented on the committee appointed by Senator Stone to attend the New York reception to William J. Bryan on his return from abroad.

Just what sort of a love feast is in prospect for this committee is a subject of much concern to the politicians at this time.

Senator Stone heads the list, although Gov. Folk, who is named as a member of the committee, has already been chosen chairman of the General Reception Committee by the New York Committee on Arrangements.

Originally the task of selecting representative Missouri Democrats to join in the Bryan home-coming welcome was intrusted to Col. Thomas C. Hennings, a member of Gov. Folk's military staff.

Suddenly Mr. Hennings received notice of a change of plans. The New Yorkers decided to impress Senator Stone into service as master of ceremonies.

Too Many Applicants.

Hennings said nothing, except that he was glad to get rid of the burden that had been placed on his shoulders.

"I was going to appoint 100 men," said he, "but I had applications from 500. Now it was impossible to appoint that number, so I couldn't have avoided causing unpleasant feelings if the committee was limited to 100."

About the time that Mr. Hennings was relieved from duty, Morton Jourdan, Ed Goltra, Harry B. Hawes, ex-Gov. David R. Francis, Breckenridge Jones and other prominent Democrats who now and then manifest a disposition to get into a factional fight went to New York and met the committee that was preparing the Bryan reception arrangements.

It is well-known among the politicians that Francis doesn't admire Gov. Folk politically; neither does Mr. Jones. Hawes is his avowed enemy.

What these men may or may not have done to disturb the program previously arranged the politicians have not yet learned.

But putting a few links in a chain of circumstances together they have reached the conclusion that finding the New York committee would not cancel its invitation to Folk to be chairman of the proposed Madison square mass meeting, somebody managed to sidetrack the Governor's friend, Mr. Hennings, and have substituted for him a political opponent in the person of Senator Stone.

Folk's Friends Get Busy.

Gov. Folk noticed these things, and his friends at once got busy.

If the New York committee didn't want Folk to preside at the Madison square gathering, then Folk's lieutenants asserted he would at once resign.

This ultimatum was followed by a most reassuring letter to Gov. Folk from Harry Walker, one of the New Yorkers in control of the Bryan arrangements there.

Mr. Walker wrote to Gov. Folk that not only did they wish to have him as chairman of the meeting, but that Mr. Bryan himself had positively demanded that the Governor participate in that capacity.

The old machine crowd learned of this almost as soon as it happened.

So the plan of having the Folk men name the Missouri reception committee was promptly knocked into a cocked hat.

Make-Up of Committee.

The committee chosen by Senator Stone is composed of the following:

D. R. Francis, Lon V. Stephens, A. M. Dockery, Sam B. Cook, Harry B. Hawes, Thomas C. Hennings, Tom Connor, Gov. Folk, W. A. Rothwell and Chairman Evans of the Democratic State Committee.

The committee is about evenly divided between the friends of Gov. Folk and Senator Stone.

The gold Democrats have an advocate in Francis, who has come out enthusiastically in favor of the selection of Bryan for the Democratic presidential nomination. The political dickie birds say Francis would like to return to the Cabinet as Secretary of the Interior, the position he held under the first Cleveland administration.

There is no political affection between ex-Gov. Stephens and ex-Secretary of State Cook. Stephens fought Cook for renomination at the Democratic State convention in 1904. Cook won, but was overwhelmingly defeated in the general election. The political swords of Cook and Stephens have been crossed for several years, and now the politicians say they are farther apart than ever, but they look for a reconciliation when they go to New York as members of the Bryan Reception Committee.

Thinks Folk Will Go Alone.

Gov. Folk isn't certain whether he will accompany the committee to New York.

The politicians are offering to bet 10 to 1 that the Governor will travel to New York alone and practically ignore the delegation selected by Stone.

Senator Stone has never encountered a more determined political opponent than Col. William H. Phelps, legislative agent of the Gould railroad interests in Missouri.

Phelps is not on the committee, but his chief lieutenant in Jasper County, Tom Connor, the millionaire Joplin mine owner, is a member of it.

Some of the politicians believe Phelps and Stone have made up, particularly in view of Connor's appointment.

Ex-Gov. Dockery probably doesn't represent any faction but himself. He cannot be classed as a Folk man and he is certainly a long ways from being a Folk shouter.

He would take a congressional nomination if he could get it and again he wouldn't turn down the United States senatorship two years hence if the party insisted on his taking it.

Harry Hawes represents the old machine gang in St. Louis, in which the racetrack gambling advocates were predominant. Hawes is not an admirer of Bryan, and he admires Gov. Folk much less.

In the gubernatorial campaign of 1904 Mr. Bryan in an interview at Hannibal, Mo., referred to the ex-Jefferson Club president as a political lightweight.

"They say politics makes strange bedfellows," remarked a well-known Democrat Thursday. "It must be true, for did anybody ever see such a diversity of political interests as Senator Stone has put on the Bryan committee?"

Spectator Who Stamps Feet at Divorce Trial Gets Warning.

Mrs. Ella E. Eby pulled the hair of Rev. Samuel C. Eby, former Swedenborgian minister, scratched his face and made it so unpleasant for him that he slept in a vacant room, according to testimony given Thursday by Phillip Eby, 15-year-old son of the couple, in the divorce case of Rev. Mr. Eby against his wife, on trial in the Clayton Circuit Court.

The hair pulling occurred at Bridgeton, the boy said. Mrs. Eby scolded her husband and finally seized him by the hair and pulled it and scratched his face with her finger nails. He said that his father tried to ward off his wife's attack, and her eye came in contact with his closed hand. He denied that his father had intended to strike his mother.

He said that Mrs. Eby nagged her husband so constantly at night that he slept in a vacant room downstairs and the witness generally occupied the room with him. His mother often came to the door of the room and pounded it, he said. One night he obtained his father's consent for him to open the door and try to quiet his mother. Instead of her becoming quiet, however, the son testified, she came into the room and stood at the foot of the bed and scolded for a long time.

"Didn't Know How to Milk."

The boy denied that Mrs. Eby had ever done farm work or that she had milked the cow. He declared that his mother did not know how to milk. He had heard Mr. Eby call Mrs. Eby a —— liar once and a plain liar several times, and had heard him advise her not to be a fool.

Miss Ethelwyn Eby, oldest daughter of the couple, testified that her mother cried in England because her father walked with Miss Mosley. After they came to America she had seen Mr. Eby burn letters in the yard which he told her were from Miss Mosley. The witness had told her mother and a quarrel had ensued between Mr. and Mrs. Eby.

During the cross-examination by Attorney Skinker he said that he knew the witness was biased in favor of her father. Attorney Patterson, for Mr. Eby, characterized the comment as unfair.

There was a stamping of feet at the back of the crowded courtroom, and Judge McElhinney asked who had made the demonstration. L. Landerberg, a Swedenborgian preacher, arose and admitted that he was the one.

"You leave the room, sir," said the Judge.

As Rev. Landerberg was leaving the room he said, "Well, I'm awful glad that I have had an opportunity of demonstrating my feelings in this case anyway."

Judge McElhinney called him back and administered a reprimand, reminding him that such a demonstration was as much out of place in a courtroom as it would be in church. The minister said he did not understand that court rules were so strict and apologized. It was accepted and he was not fined. He was given permission to remain in the courtroom, but was warned not to give way to his feeling again.

Mrs. Eby to Testify.

Mrs. Ella E. Eby will probably testify Thursday afternoon. The Clayton courtroom is crowded at every hearing of the case.

Miss Ethelwyn Eby, oldest daughter of the pair, testified Wednesday afternoon that she considered Miss Mosely of London, who has been brought into the case "a homely old maid." She denied that she had told her mother that she saw her father's head in Miss Mosely's lap, but she said he had received letters from the English woman.

She said she and her father had once left home after her parents had quarreled, and slept in Forest Park. The witness said she left home and obtained employment as a governess because her father had told her, when she complained of his receiving letters from Miss Mosely, that if she was dissatisfied she could leave the house. She declared he did not order her out.

Miss Eby said her mother had said that while she never believed her husband had improper relations with other women she became so angry at times that she could not keep from saying harsh things. The young woman denied that she had ever seen her father assault her mother, or vice versa, though she recollected that once her father's face was scratched and his glasses broken.

The witness admitted that her father had applied the epithet "liar" to her mother, but she could not recall that he used profane language in connection with the address.

Miss Louise Boehmer of 3739 Windsor place testified that she had "rather advised" divorce after Mrs. Eby had complained to her of her unhappiness, and had expressed thought of taking her own life.

Mrs. Mary Wright of Kirkwood, who is friendly to both parties to the suit, declared that each was kind and affectionate toward the other.

Mrs. E. H. Schneider, who was a stenographer for the minister, deposed that Mrs. Eby had complained bitterly of being left on the farm near Bridgeton to feed swine while an intellectual feast was in progress at the Swedenborgian house at the World's Fair.

Mrs. Schneider, as Miss Huber, the minister's secretary, is said by him to have been the cause of dissension between husband and wife on several occasions.

FOUGHT MIDNIGHT DUEL ABOUT GIRL

One Man Gets Slashes With Razor in Fight on North Grand Avenue.

THREE MEN IN THE ROW

Two Are Arrested Though Injured Man Refused to Prosecute the Other.

Charles Oellerman of 3020 North Prairie avenue, known as "Red, the scorebook man," at one of the baseball parks, was cut three times with a razor at 1 a. m. Thursday by Charles Brandis of 3513 Sullivan avenue in a fight at the corner of Grand and Sullivan avenue.

Oellerman was slashed twice over the head and once across the wrist. Brandis was not cut, although Oellerman had a knife.

Ben Burbach of 3916 North Grand avenue, according to the police, was a third party to the fight, while Brandis' sister had some connection with it.

It appears that Brandis and Burbach became involved in an angry argument about something connected with Miss Brandis. One story is that Brandis objected to language Burbach used in his sister's presence.

A fight started between Brandis and Burbach and Oellerman took a hand to help Burbach. Burbach was lost sight of in the fight that followed.

Oellerman was taken to the office of Dr. Kern, 3916 North Grand avenue, where his wounds were patched. No report was made to the police. At 8 o'clock Thursday morning Policeman John Ballard found a pool of blood at the corner of Grand and Sullivan avenues and a trail of blood leading northward. He followed it to Dr. Kern's office and learned what happened.

Ballard arrested Brandis and locked him up at the Dayton Street Station. Oellerman went to the station and told Capt. Gaffney that he wouldn't prosecute Brandis if he would pay the doctor's bill. Gaffney refused to hear of any such compromise. Then Oellerman said he wouldn't prosecute. The Captain then locked Oellerman up and told the prisoners he would send them both to the Police Court on cross charges of disturbing the peace.

Both were released on bond. They will be arraigned in the Dayton Street Police Court Friday.

NEGRO HANGED ON AN ISLAND TO FOIL MOB

Tried in Baltimore for Assault on Two Women and Sentenced to Death.

CRISFIELD, Md., July 26.—William Lee the colored youth who was sentenced to death in Baltimore three weeks ago for assaulting two women in Somerset County, and who had been threatened with lynching, was hanged today by Sheriff Brown on Smith's Island, in the presence of his deputies and a few witnesses. The hanging was orderly.

The mob that had threatened to burn Lee at the stake was completely outwitted by the Sheriff.

To carry out this purpose Sheriff Brown appeared in Baltimore yesterday afternoon late and placed his prisoner aboard a steamer of the Maryland Oyster Navy and immediately sailed down the bay. He took with him a gallows which had been borrowed from Baltimore County and also a coffin and was prepared to hang Lee on the deck of the vessel after reaching the waters of Somerset County, should there be any signs of a mob on shore.

KNOX'D KNOCK ON FOX'D HEAD KNOCKED ACHE FROM FOX'S STOMACH

Sufferer Who Wanted Remedy in Drug Store Grew Peevish Because Clerk Was Slow and Began Smashing Fixtures—Raps on His Hat Rack Made Him Forget Original Trouble.

Charles Fox, who gives his address as 1014 Market street, has invented a brand-new cure for stomach ache. Despite its effectiveness, there is little probability that the cure will be generally adopted. A description of Fox's method of demonstration will illustrate this point.

Incidentally, this is a story of Fox and Knox. Unlike the classic story of Box and Cox, Fox and Knox did not meet every day on the staircase of their rooming house.

They came together for the first time at 4 o'clock Thursday morning when Fox entered the Anti-Monopoly drug store at Sixth and Market streets and asked for something to cure a cramp in his stomach.

Knox, the clerk, whose last name is Patterson, undertook to oblige Fox.

While Knox was mixing a warm concoction Fox became nervous. According to the veracious police report, his nervousness took the form of throwing chairs around and occasionally slamming one against a showcase. Fox finally told Knox if he didn't hurry up with the medicine he'd break up the entire pharmacy.

Knox dropped his bottles and started for Fox.

Fox was too foxy for Knox, however, and gave Knox knocks, Knox trying to eject him meanwhile.

Knox retreated behind the prescription counter and reappeared with a revolver. With this Knox administered several knocks on Fox's head.

Policeman Edom sent Fox to the dispensary in an ambulance. A physician sewed up his scalp. When this task was finished the physician, having learned the story of the encounter, inquired about the stomach ache.

"It's disappeared," said Fox, as he was led away to the holdover.

F. H. Gieselman Dies.

The funeral of Frank H. Gieseiman, a member of the Merchants' Exchange and secretary of the Chris Sharp Commission Co., will be held at the family residence, 3500 Sullivan avenue, Saturday at 3 p. m. Mr. Gieseiman died Wednesday of pneumonia. He was 42 years old and is survived by his widow, two daughters and his mother.

Frisco's City Hall Condemned.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—The City Hall, which cost $6,000,000, was formally declared unsafe at the meeting of the Board of Public Works yesterday and notice was served on the Police Department that its station in the building must find other quarters. The building was condemned throughout.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free.

GIRL UNHURT WHEN HORSES DASH INTO POLE

Thrown From Vehicle Onto Animal, She Is Soon Rescued.

MAD DASH DOWN STREET

Little Elsie Walden Clings Tightly to Seat in Kirkwood Runaway.

OTHERS THROWN ESCAPE

Horses Bolt When Tongue Breaks After Vehicle Hits Hitching Post.

Elsie Walden, 7 years old, was thrown from the front seat of a brake on to the body of a fallen horse and rolled to the ground, practically unhurt, beside the struggling and kicking horse, when a runaway team dashed a brake belonging to Frank H. Britton of Oakland, St. Louis County, into a telephone pole at Main street and North Webster avenue, Kirkwood, Wednesday evening.

The child was rescued from her dangerous position beside the horse by David Berg, a barber in Kirkwood. She was only slightly bruised by the fall. The little girl's mother and the others of the party were thrown or had jumped from the brake when the horses started to run away. They escaped uninjured.

The party included, besides Elsie and the mother, who are visiting the Britton family, Miss Ada Britton, daughter of Mr. Britton, Miss Biebinger of Ferguson and Mrs. James Porteus of 431 North Webster avenue, Kirkwood.

Tongue Breaks, Horses Bolt.

Miss Britton was driving and had just put Mrs. Porteus down at her home when the team became restive and backed the brake into a hitching post. The shock broke the brake tongue with a loud snap and the horses bolted. Miss Biebinger and Mrs. Walden jumped to the ground.

The team was apparently unmanageable and Miss Britton reached for the child to jump with her. As she did so the team plunged over a ridge of earth where water mains had been laid in the street and Miss Britton was thrown to the ground.

Water mains had just been laid down the street and the brake careened from side to side as the horses dashed over the uneven stret. The little girl was prevented from being thrown from her seat by clinging tightly. She was too frightened to jump when the others did. The streets were filled with Kirkwood residents and many expected to see the vehicle overturned at any moment.

The horses ran four blocks to Main street, where the attempt to turn into that street caused the collision. The horse on which Elsie alighted was thrown from its feet by the force of the collision.

BABY FALLS OUT WINDOW TO DEATH

Edler Child Tumbles Through Mosquito Screen on Third Floor.

Tiny Kenneth Edler plunged from a third-story window at 3416 Lawton avenue to his death Wednesday evening. The baby was only 18 months old and was crushed by the contact with the pavement. It struck the sidewalk after tumbling through a mosquito screen after its mother had prepared it for a bath.

The child was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Edler, both of whom are prostrated by the accident. The baby had been playing near the window with its brother, Charles, also an infant, and climbed into the casement.

The little brother ran to his mother and told her that the little one had disappeared and the mother hastened frantically to the street. Baby Edler had been crushed on the sidewalk and died shortly after being picked up.

The father of the tiny victim is a grandson of the late William S. Burroughs, the inventor.

The FINAL, FITTING CLIMAX

THE Greatest Clearing Sale in the History of St. Louis rises in force, importance and magnitude to its grand climax. Inspired by the unprecedented success of this great sale, we have determined to make the last three days still more remarkable—days long to be remembered by the people of St. Louis. Tremendous has been our selling. MORE GIGANTIC WILL BE THESE LAST THREE DAYS.

A Fitting Final Climax
In Our Second Floor Clearance

No department in the store needs to so thoroughly prepare for the coming season as our Second Floor "School of Style." When we make it an invariable rule to carry over no garments from one season to another—to begin each season with an entirely fresh stock of new garments—then it behooves us to let no loss considerations stand in our way to make the clearance absolute, final and immediate.

Cloaks, Suits, Waists, Dresses, Skirts, and all sorts of garments for women, misses and children, have been specially priced, and the three items that we mention for Friday will give some idea of the bargain prices on hundreds of other pieces of apparel on our second floor.

$2.00 White Wash Skirts, 79c

$7.50, $6.50, $5.00 and $3.75 Walking Skirts at $1.95

A final gathering of odd lots of Skirts that sold for from $3.75 to $7.50—about 215 Skirts in all—to be sold at this low figure for a final wind-up. There are a few of each of the many styles we carried this season, and in addition we have added a sample line from a prominent maker and have arranged all on two large tables, offering you the greatest values you ever saw in Skirts. Fine Panamas, serges, cheviots, fancy mixtures, mannish materials and broadcloths, in black, blues, browns, grays, plaid grays, checks, etc. Mostly all lengths from 37 to 43 inches. We also offer 200 pure linen Skirts, the $4.00 kind, in plaited front and back panels, gored, circular sides, with bias band trimming around bottom, at the low price for a pure linen Skirt..... 1.95

An Entire Car Load—A late shipment of an entire carload arrived at a very inopportune time. Just now we're clearing stocks and taking inventory. Best thing we can do is to include this carload in the Clearing Sale, and get the goods out of the way with all possible speed. Don't want to take them in Inventory, if we can help it.

On one part of the 4th floor we've pushed aside a number of counters and have stacked this chinaware on ordinary kitchen tables, regardless of display. The goods are here and they MUST GO. Prices which seem truly ridiculous have been attached to every piece of this ware, so that the carload will be removed from our stock in the shortest period of time.

There are thousands of different pieces, including nice white dinner sets, pretty white plates, teacups and saucers, toilet sets and other dishes and plates of every description. They are all modeled according to the newest designs, neatly embossed with festoon edges. Every piece has a bright glaze and is fully guaranteed.

Goods like these at prices like these are without a parallel

ICED DRINKS DANGEROUS

Unless they contain a teaspoonful of Duffy's Malt Whiskey in each glass.

The American people consume during the hot weather a very large quantity of iced drinks of various kinds and colors, and pay dearly for it with disordered stomachs that refuse to perform their work; bowel complaints, exhaustion, congestion, sunstroke and many other ills follow and from these causes the loss of life is great. Doctors say all danger can be prevented by the proper use of

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

It destroys the disease germ and tones the system up, enriches the blood and keeps it in a healthy condition. Duffy's Malt Whiskey is absolutely pure and contains no fusel oil.

All druggists and grocers, or direct, $1 per bottle. Medical booklet free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

FACE OF DEAD LEADS SLAYER TO CONFESS

Haunted Missourian Tells of Killing Companion and Placing Body on Railroad.

HE SAW IT MANGLED

Hidden in the Bushes He Waited Till It Had Been Ground to Pieces by Train.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 26.—Haunted by the face of the man he says he murdered, Henry D. Pate, under sentence in Montgomery City, Mo., for horse stealing, has confessed that he shot James Taggart in this city last fall and then laid the body across the railroad tracks, where it was mangled by a train.

The police believe that the murdered man's name was not James Taggart, but James Dougherty and that the confession clears up the mystery of his death.

When Dougherty's body was found mangled on the railroad tracks several months ago, it was thought that he had been killed by a train. An inquest was held and the Coroner found that his death was due to accident.

Pate was arrested at Montgomery City, both for horse stealing and jail breaking. He is known by the name of Ben Wilson, Charles Abbott and Sam Clark, and is also known to have been in the Kentucky Penitentiary for horse stealing. After being arrested at Montgomery City he made a confession to Prosecuting Attorney Rosenberger, in which he said that in August or September of last year he was employed at Swift's packing house here, and had trouble with another packing house employe, whom he believed to be James Taggart.

They met on the railroad tracks one night and Pate says he shot the man and killed him. He told the prosecuting attorney that he then laid the body of the murdered man on the tracks and that a train mangled it. He waited by the tracks, in a dark place, until he saw the train run over the body of his victim.

According to the confession made by Pate, he was afraid the bullet wounds might be found in the body of the dead man, so went across country to De Kalb and boarded a train for Omaha.

The body of the man was found near the tracks, ground to pieces and badly mangled, the next morning. It was not discovered that Dougherty had been shot.

Pate says he is haunted by the face of the man he murdered, and that he is induced to make the confession in the hope that he may find relief.

If any corroboration of Pate's story can be found, he will be tried for murder.

FIERCE FIGHT IN CHOP SUEY JOINT

Chairs, Dishes and Fists Weapons in Scrap in Chinese Restaurant.

Police of the Central District were summoned to 510 Market street at 2:30 Thursday morning on a riot call, a fierce fight in which six men and two women were participants being in progress. Chairs and knives, as well as fists and dishes, appeared as weapons and one of the women is said to have flourished a long bladed dagger and expressed the vehement wish to be allowed to stab somebody.

The police and the attaches of the Chinese restaurant, where the fight took place, succeeded in quieting the fighters before anybody was fatally inured, but there were several badly battered faces and heads in evidence. The fighters were arrested and released on bond.

On the one side of the fight were Ralph Lasch, Clement Walker and J. Clark, all traveling men, guests of the St. James Hotel, who had gone to the Chinese establishment for a late supper. The other participant in the row were Charles Slattery, 915 Morgan street; John Dix of 1514 Walnut street, Walter de Vallo, 4115 Finney avenue, and two women.

Lasch and his two companions were seated when the other party entered. They declare the attack, which was made first by Slattery, was unprovoked. Walker was hit over the head with a chair and Lasch was struck on the head by some one armed with a salad bowl. Slattery was so badly hurt that he was cared for at the Dispensary. The restaurant was badly wrecked, the proprietor declaring that furniture, glass and chinaware worth $300 had been broken.

BALL BOUNCED ON HEAD.

Fatal Shooting in Poolroom Run by Detectives.

John Love, a negro waiter, was shot twice in the left breast in a poolroom at Jefferson avenue and Chestnut street by Carl Glass, a negro porter. The place is said to be conducted by Allen Wilkenson, a negro detective on Chief Desmond's staff. The men had a controversy over a pool game Wednesday afternoon.

Love is reported to have bounced a pool ball on the head of Glass, who drew a revolver and fired twice. Almost immediately Sergt. Driscoll and three patrolmen appeared in the place and arrested Glass, sending Love to the City Hospital. His wounds are dangerous.

Love lives at 2918 Lawton avenue and Glass at 2818 Laclede avenue. The police department is said to be conducting an investigation into Wilkenson's connection with the poolroom. He was reinstated on the force recently at the instance of Police Commissioner Frisloe.

Loss of Shade Causes Suit.

Anna Bond Mekeel and Charles H. Mekeel have filed suit in the Circuit Court against the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. for $500 actual and $1000 punitive damages for alleged mutilation of trees on the premises about their home, known as Courtright Hall, on Natural Bridge road. They allege that the company destroyed the beauty and usefulness of the trees.

Grand Leader's Removal Sale

is unquestionably the greatest bargain event St. Louis has ever known, and it is doubtful if you will ever again see its equal. The opportunities for saving are remarkable. Everything in the store is offered at an immense discount, and it is evident the good news has spread throughout the adjacent territory, for people within a radius of two hundred miles are coming to St. Louis just to attend this sale.

We want to impress upon you very emphatically that the discounts are deducted from the regular lines of merchandise. Odds and ends, broken lines, etc., are offered at much lower prices. Where we have an immense quantity of an item, we are also offering an extra concession. To illustrate, we quote here a few specimen items, showing what radical reductions we are making.

Aching Feet

Tired, Red and Swollen

Frederick F. Smith, 82 Francis St., Roxbury, Mass., says: "My feet were swollen twice their size, and I could not even keep a stocking on. I bathed my feet one night with that liquid X-Zalia, and in the morning the pain was entirely gone and I had no trouble whatever in getting into my boots, and I walked down town that morning to my work." Do your feet swell up, grow red and ache? Do they get so tired they actually twitch with nervousness? Then simply bathe them with this liquid X-Zalia, and all the ache and pain will go away. Nothing refreshes the feet like wetting them with this healing antiseptic liquid. Takes out all soreness and inflammation. Just try it some time.

X-Zalia

You simply keep any sore wet with this liquid X-Zalia, and healthy flesh begins to grow. Nothing like it. Large bottle, 50c, any druggist. Free booklet, "How to Cure All Skin Diseases." X-Zalia Corporation, 55-57 Batterymarch st., Boston.

MEN JEER WOMAN CHASING ROBBER

Fearing to Shoot Sidewalk Sitters, She Lets Negro Get Away.

HE RAN WITH WEAPON

Pretending to Price It, He Suddenly Seizes It and Dashes Out.

Mrs. Ida Finegold, 50 years old, who keeps a second-hand shop at 220 South Second street, leaped to her feet and pursued with a revolver a negro who had knocked her down and run from the shop with a revolver which he had been examining under pretense of wishing to buy it.

Mrs. Finegold was only a few feet behind the negro when she reached the street. She ran several steps after the negro. Fearing to shoot lest she hit one of the men from lodging houses along the street whose chairs crowded the sidewalk, she fired in the air to summon the police.

"It was useless to pursue him," said Mrs. Finegold to a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday. "He could outrun me, and if I fired I might hit someone on the street. Besides, I could not leave my store unattended. I should have lost more than the negro took.

"The negro ran past a number of men who were sitting on the sidewalk. They did not try to stop him, but just sat there and laughed at me. The negro turned down Elm street and ran toward the Levee.

"He came into my shop last night and asked to see some revolvers. He picked a 32-caliber revolver and told me to wrap it up.

"He had a piece of paper in his hand which I at first thought was money. I asked him for the price, $4.50, and he grabbed the revolver with one hand and knocked me down with the other. He didn't hurt me much.

"He was black, slender and about 5 feet 5 inches tall. He was about 23 years old and wore dark trousers, a blue shirt and a handkerchief around his neck, a small gray hat with a white string on it and dark trousers. He was a typical river negro. I can identify him."

Mrs. Finegold says this is the third time negroes have robbed her shop. Six years ago last June, she says, three negroes beat her and stole seven revolvers, and in December of the same years three negroes attempted to rob her store. Her son, Joseph, shot and killed one of them.

KIRKWOOD GETS ITS WATER AGAIN

Company Officials Fail to Explain Why Supply Was Cut Off.

Kirkwood's water famine was ended early Thursday when the residents of that suburb found enough water in the pipes to wash their faces. They had been without a water supply since Sunday morning.

The West St. Louis Water and Light Co. which pumps Kirkwood's water supply from the Missouri River, has made no explanation of the reason the water stopped or why it commenced running again.

City Clerk Gus Ossenfort and Marshal Secrest went to Mona Station, where the company's pumping plant is situated, Wednesday in an endeavor to find the cause of the water famine, but the officials there, they say, gave them no satisfaction. The officials of the water company told the Kirkwood representatives that they were pumping water just as usual and didn't know why Kirkwood wasn't getting its share.

Messrs. Osenfort and Secrest were pleased Thursday morning, however, to learn that the water was running again.

Kirkwood citizens do not understand why their water supply was cut off while everything was in running order at Webster Groves, farther away from the pumping station.

The company has a water tower in Kirkwood and is supposed to keep water there at all times. Kirkwood citizens say they found Wednesday that the pipe there was entirely dry.

Kirkwood citizens say the service has been poor for some time, but that Sunday was the first time that the supply was cut off altogether.

WOMEN STONE NEGRO.

Hodcarrier's Attack on His Foreman Resented.

Bernard Jennings, foreman of a bricklaying crew at Academy and Easton avenues, was seriously hurt, and William Cooney, a negro hodcarrier, was dangerously injured in a fight Wednesday afternoon over Cooney's demand that he be allowed pay for an hour he took off from work. He hurled a brick at the foreman and white bricklayers then attacked the hodcarrier with a volley of bricks.

Cooney is said to have laid off from 11 until 1 o'clock and insisted that Jennings permit him to draw the pay for the extra noon hour. The foreman refused and ordered the negro out of the way.

Cooney threw a brick which tore away part of Jennings' nose and another which laid the foreman on his back. Then white workmen assailed the negro with bricks, fracturing Cooney's skull and otherwise injuring him. He was sent to the City Hospital and Jennings was taken to his home at 4718 Page boulevard.

NECK BROKEN, HE TALKS.

Clarence Martin Paralyzed by Fall of Earth.

Clarence Martin, 18 years old, of Davenport, Io, was caught by tons of falling earth in a trench at Milan, Ill., two weeks ago and his neck was broken. He was brought to Centenary Hospital and now talks daily with his mother, who sits almost constantly at his side. It is believed that he will recover and have the use of a portion of his body.

The fifth cervical vertebra was split and crushed, and it was thought at first that he could not possibly live. He has a strong physique, however, and his strength pulled him through the first stages of treatment.

Although his body is paralyzed, his brain is in good condition and the patient is exceedingly cheerful.

COLUMBUS, O., July 26.—When the condemned M. E. Church at Groveport, O., was torn down yesterday the members of the congregation were shocked to find in the cornerstone, not the Bible and history of the church that were supposed to have been placed there when the church was built, in 1851, but a tobacco box and a deck of cards. It is supposed that a practical joker switched the articles when the stone was laid.

MAD DOG KILLED BY A POLICEMAN

Animal Snapping at Children on Fair Avenue Soon Put Out of Way.

SIX CASES WEDNESDAY

Wyoming Street Brute Bites Two in the Same Neighborhood.

The dog population of St. Louis, evidently being aware of the fact that it is immune from police interference, is showing less respect for the law every day. Wednesday the members of the Cur Society for the Punishment of Children worked over time. Six cases were reported to the police, only a small portion of the total number.

Raymond Crone, 9 years old of 4130 Clarence avenue, was bitten in the left side by a dog owned by Mrs. Joseph Holloway of 4302 Lee avenue.

Policeman Sheehan of the Angelica Street District shot and killed a supposed mad dog which was snapping at children in the neighborhood of Carter and Fair avenue. The dog belonged to Walter Duffy of 4117 Carter avenue.

John Flick, 7 years old of 3237 Michigan avenue, while passing in front of 3128 Wyoming street, was bitten on the left arm and shoulder by a dog belonging to Adolph Johannssen, who lives at the Wyoming street address. The dog, the police report says, had no license. Louis Bartholone, 9 years old, of 3220 Michigan avenue, was also bitten by the Johannssen dog, receiving a wound in the little finger of the left hand.

Martin Miller, 40 years old, of 822 North Eighteenth street, was bitten on the second finger of the left hand by a dog in front of 912 North Seventeenth street.

Berthold Stone, 5 years old, of 1114 North Twenty-third street, while playing in the street in front of his home, was bitten in the left breast by a dog owned by Mrs. Kate Dugan of 1115 North Twenty-third street.

TELLER EVERLY NEAR ARREST

Everly for two years, her faith was still unshaken. And today it is just the same.

Even the fact that Everly went directly to this woman when he left St. Louis has not changed the wife's faith. All she asks is that she may get word that he is coming back to her. He may come in manacles if he must, but he will find her waiting for him with a wife's greeting.

In the meantime the police expect to land Everly in Denver or that city's immediate vicinity sometime soon.

Watching Denver Trains.

Imediately upon learning that Everly had been seen in Denver by one of the employes of the bank, the man sending the information was instructed to have Everly arrested on sight and to watch all the outgoing trains to see that the teller did not get away again. The police of Denver and all the surrounding towns were notified of his presence in their vicinity, and at the request of A. C. Stewart, counsel for the bank, an information will be issued against Everly charging him with the embezzlement of $5000.

Owing to the fact that all Denver trains leave from one union station, and the additional fact that the roads have few suburban stations, it is not believed that Everly can evade arrest by leaving Denver, and his capture is believed to be only a matter of a few hours.

The friendship between Everly and Mrs. Fred Beach of Amarillo, Tex., to see whom Everly went to Loveland, Colo., a suburb of Denver, immediately upon leaving St. Louis, was not known to Everly's wife and Mrs. Beach's husband. Mrs. Everly denied Thursday that she had ever heard of Mrs. Beach, and from Amarillo, Tex., came a dispatch to the Post-Dispatch in which Mr. Beach, who is a wealthy elevator man, being secretary of the New Star Mill and Elevator Co., declared the same ignorance regarding Everly. Mr. Beach, according to the dispatch, left Amarillo for Loveland in response to a telegram from his wife telling him that he was needed there.

Met During World's Fair.

According to Mrs. Beach's own statement, made to a Post-Dispatch reporter at Loveland, the acquaintance and correspondence between her and Everly, of which her husband and Mrs. Everly were ignorant, began as long ago as during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in 1904, and has been kept up ever since. She is the mysterious "Leni" from whom a special delivery letter came to the bank for Everly the day after he disappeared. It was to her home that the absconding cashier went, directly after sending a note to his wife telling her that he was going to begin life anew in another place.

NEGRO IS CAPTURED.

Says He Feared Lynching and Is Glad to Be in Jail.

William King, the negro who is alleged to have attacked Mrs. Arillay Klester of Dennis Hollow, near Waterloo, Ill., is now locked up at the Waterloo Jail. He was arrested Wednesday night at Fountain, Ill., by Sheriff Thomas Ruch of Waterloo. He was intercepted as he was making his way toward St. Louis. He formerly worked at East St. Louis.

King was given a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the grand jury. He could not give bond and went to Jail. He said he feared the farmers of the neighborhood would lynch him and was glad to be arrested by the Sheriff when he knew the farmers were pursuing him.

ENOCH ARDEN AT HOME.

Charles Saunders, whose wife, Mrs. Helen Saunders, thought she buried him several weeks ago, and collected $400 insurance, is at his home, 3037 Magazine street. Judge Moore suspended his sentence of one year in the Workhouse on a charge of wife abandonment on obtaining his promise to support his wife and 5-year-old child.

The body which was identified as that of Saunders and was buried in SS. Peter and Paul's Cemetery, has been exhumed, and is again held at the Morgue for identification. If it is not identified it will be re-interred in the Potters' Field.

KENNISH AND NEVILLE WIN NOMINATIONS

Assistant Attorney-General Is Named by Republicans for Long Term.

BOTH BALLOTS AT ONCE

Jefferson City Adojurns Convention After Session of Three Hours.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 26.—Assistant Attorney-General John Kennish and Judge James T. Neville of Springfield were nominated on the first ballot this afternoon by the State Republican Judicial Convention for members of the Supreme Court.

Kennish received 496½ votes and Neville 445½, which gave Kennish the long-term nomination. Neville, having the second highest, is the candidate for the short term.

The two defeated candidates received the following vote: Allen, 229½; Thurmond, 108½.

All candidates were called to the speaker's desk and each addressed the convention, expressing thanks. The convention adjourned at 1:15, having completed its work in 3½ hours.

Kennish in his address to the convention declaring he had not made effort to get the nomination, but accepted it and pledged, if elected, to decide cases according to the law. Judge Neville said he did not get what he wanted, but he accepted what he got.

The convention made the temporary organization permanent and adopted resolutions to vote for both candidates at the same time, the one receiving the highest vote to take the long term and the other the short term, provided each candidate received a majority of votes cast.

Judge Higbee of Kirksville withdrew from the race in favor of Kennish and Judge Neville. The rule for voting for both candidates at once was bad for Charles Claflin Allen of St. Louis, who was a candidate for the short term only.

G. W. Murphy of Holt County placed the name of John Kennish before the convention. This was seconded by Assistant Attorney-General N. T. Gentry, George Pepperdine of Springfield presented the name of Judge James T. Neville. J. B. Garber of Montgomery County named N. D. Thurmond of Callaway County. N. A. Mozley of Stoddard County presented Charles Claflin Allen of St. Louis. The balloting lasted but a short time.

Gov. Folk delivered an address of welcome to the convention this morning.

He was cheered when he praised the Republican State officials, personally complimenting each, and declared that character should be the chief standard in the choice of candidates for the Supreme Court.

"If the character of the man is assured," said the Governor, "it will seldom be a mistake to trust to his knowledge of the law."

State Chairman Niedringhaus, who had introduced Gov. Folk, presented Judge John G. Park of Kansas City as temporary chairman and A. L. Shortridge of Sedalia as temporary secretary after the Governor's address.

Judge Park praised Gov. Folk, and said the Republican party indorsed all the good things he had done and all the good things he stands for. He also said that Gov. Folk stands for the good things which the Republican party stands for.

In resolutions adopted after Judge Park's speech, the convention declared its indorsement of "every public official who has fully and fearlessly discharged his duty, regardless of party name."

BROKMEYER DEAD; FUNERAL SATURDAY

Family at Bedside of Former Democratic Lieutenant-Governor.

HE WAS WRITER OF NOTE

Pardoning Robber and Debates With Carl Schurz Made Him Famous.

Henry C. Brokmeyer, former Democratic Lieutenant-Governor of Missouri and one of the best known business men, writers and politicians in this part of the country, died at 3:20 a. m. Thursday at St. Luke's Hospital. He had been ill a long time and the end which followed an operation, was not unexpected.

When he died his wife, his sons, Harry J. Brokmeyer of Roosevelt, N. Y., and Eugene C. Brokmeyer of St. Louis, and a daughter, Mrs. A. J. Walsh, were at his bedside. The funeral will be Saturday afternoon from the residence, at 1446 Monroe street. The burial will be private.

The pallbearers will be Martin L. Clardy, Capt. Luther H. Conn, Capt. Dan Abel, Prof. Denton, J. Snider, John McCluney, Dr. Edward Evers and Robert Campbell. They had been associated with Lieutenant-Governor Brokmeyer in his various enterprises and were his friends for many years.

Mr. Brockmeyer was nearly 80 years old. He had contributed much to the literature of the country and had been the leader in pushing many of the present most important laws of the State.

Lieutenant-Governor Brockmeyer was one of the founders of the School of Philosophy at Concord, Mass., with Dr. William P. Harris, recently given a life annuity by the Carnegie foundation, as one of his associates.

Author of Many Books.

He had written a number of works which were recognized not only in America, but also in other countries. Among these are his translation of Hegel's Philosophy, of Hegel's Psychology and Hegel's Phenomenology, of the second part of Goeth's Faust; his commentaries on Shakspeare, his international History and Treatise on the Mississippi, which was widely known; his notes on happenings of the day and his comedy, "The Errand Boy," which was never produced, but which treated humorously of Washington official life, and his "Boxer Night at Newport," which had a considerable sale.

In 1875 he was Democratic Lieutenant-Governor and drafted important statutes. From 1876 to 1877, during the illness of Gov. John S. Phelps, he was acting Governor and while in that position succeeded in having enacted the two-thirds possession rule.

He became famous for pardoning "Dick" Little, a member of Jesse James' robber band, and as a debater with Carl Schurz during the "crisis of '73." He was Elector at Large on the Cleveland ticket in 1884 and was one of the most striking figures in Central and Western politics for several years.

Mr. Brokmeyer was born in Prussia, and, on his mother's side, was a nephew of the late Prince Bismarck, Germany's "Iron Chancellor."

DR. MESSING'S DAUGHTER DIES

Mrs. Elsie J. Berman Had Been Ill for Three Years Past.

Mrs. Elsie J. Berman, wife of J. Philip Berman, and daughter of Rabbi Henry J. Messing, pastor of the United Hebrew Congregation, died at her father's residence, 4439 Delmar boulevard, after an illness of only 24 hours, at 5 a. m. Thursday.

Mrs. Berman had lived at her father's residence for the past three years. During all that time, members of the family say, she suffered from nervous ailments, and was under treatment of a physician.

Mrs. Berman was 32 years old. Her husband is connected with the Root Newspaper Co. They had been married eight years, and have one child, May, aged 4.

Mrs. Berman is survived by her parents, four sisters and three brothers, two being Alfred H. Messing, a Chicago newspaper editor, and Oscar Dane (Messing), a well-known actor.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Delmar boulevard residence, where services will be held. Interment will be in Mt. Olive Cemetery.

A number of relatives will come from distant cities to attend the burial, two of them being Rev. A. J. Messing of Chicago and Rev. M. Messing of Indianapolis.

MAKE IT UP IN CELL.

Mrs. Clements Refuses to Prosecute Man She Accused.

Mrs. Tillie Clements of 2902 North Twelfth street has withdrawn the charge of stealing a watch against William A. Meyer, a brewery driver, of 3919 Vest avenue, which she made Tuesday evening. The man has been released, a reconciliation of the two having been effected in a police station cell.

Tuesday Mrs. Clements had Meyer taken by the police, accusing him of having stolen her watch and chain, which he had given her some time ago. She asserted that he had called on her in the afternoon and after he had gone neighbors discovered that her timepiece was missing. They trailed the brewery driver to 8000 North Broadway and there found Meyer with the watch on him.

The man refused to relinquish the jewelry, asserting that it was his property, and he was arrested and locked up. Later Mrs. Clements appeared, the two had a conference in a cell and the woman then announced that Meyer was her sweetheart, that she intended to marry him soon and would not prosecute him.

Mrs. Clements has three children, who say she has been friendly with Meyer about four years.

Repairs Don't Affect Lease.

Repairing a place has no effect on a lease, according to Justice Billhartz. Harry Soltz, who owns the premises at 1706 South Broadway, thought it did. He repaired the first floor, occupied under a lease by Charles Miller, a clothier. Then he asked Miller to pay more than the $42 a month rent that he had been paying. Miller got out his lease and pointed to the $42 a month in it. Soltz said it was different now. A partition had been taken out and the store was worth more. Miller refused to pay and Soltz sued him. Justice Billhartz decided in favor of Miller. The case has been applauded to the Circuit Court.

Carrier Gets Pocketbook.

The pocketbook containing $30 in cash, several checks and cards, found Monday by Prof. Clark of 1824 Pine street, was turned over to the owner, J. O. Vinicor, a newspaper carrier. Prof. Clark advertised that he had found the pocketbook and Vinicor proved that he was the owner.

"First in Everything."

Mrs. King, the Texas owner of 1,280,000 acres of land, must be something of a Queen.

The British Dreadnaught cost nearly $10,000,000. Can't we make our Skeer 'Em All cost $20,000,000?

St. Louis' summer weather has been delightful and St. Louis' summer trade has been great. Blessed is St. Louis.

SANCTIONED BY PRECEDENT.

Congressman Pollard of the First Nebraska District was elected July 18 to fill a vacancy dating from March 4. E. J. Burkett had been elected to this seat in November, 1904, but having been subsequently chosen Senator, did not qualify at the beginning of the session.

It is charged, however, that Pollard drew the salary from March 4. Questioned on the subject, he replied: "What should a man say about anything when he has done right?"

A friend, speaking in his behalf, justifies the grab by saying that "It is sanctioned by precedent. Everybody does it." And he adds: "Everybody draws all the salary possible in Washington."

If the story is true, and if Mr. Pollard really thinks he did right, it would be interesting to have his ideas set forth at length. Had he been entitled to the seat on March 4 he would have been entitled to the salary whether the House was in session or not. In such case the members are subject to call and may not undertake any private service inconsistent with the public duties of a Representative. But he was not a Congressman during the weeks from March 4 to July 18. If he drew the salary he may justify it by precedent, but not by a strict moral code.

Moreover, it would be interesting to know if such practices are common, as the friend says. If everybody draws all the salary he can at Washington, whether he earns it or is legally entitled to it or not, what are we to think of the moral condition of Congressmen and public servants generally?

The amount of money taken from the treasury is trifling. But what moral standard governs the doing and thinking of "everybody in Washington" if "everybody does it"?

Stolypin proclaims war to the knife in Russia. It is to be feared that presently some one will stick a pin into Stolypin.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

With strange inconsistency Congress has permitted the establishment of postal savings banks in the Philippines after having refused for years even to consider such a proposal for the United States

Great Britain established her postal savings system in 1855. There are today 14,362 postal savings banks in the United Kingdom, with deposits amounting to nearly $1,000,000,000. Contrary to expectation, these popular banks have not diminished the prosperity of the private savings banks, but by encouraging thrift have acted rather as feeders to financial institutions managed by corporations and individuals.

The ease with which loans of large amounts are floated in France is due to the well-known habit of thrift among the French people, which has been fostered by the postal savings banks in that country. And besides enabling the French peasant and workman to engage in finance as an investor whenever the opportunity arises, the Government savings banks, not less than the private institutions, act as a powerful check to the encroachments of Socialism by making the small investor feel that he has a personal interest in the stability of the country.

The system has worked well in Europe. The experiment in the Philippines will be watched with interest. If successful it may suggest the question whether conditions in the United States may not be favorable for similar institutions.

A large part of a campaign fund may be used in circulating misleading information; yet this comes under the head of "legitimate expenses."

A GENTLEMAN'S WORD.

In response to the assertions that the candidacy of Bryan "makes the candidacy of Roosevelt inevitable," Gov. Higgins gives out a statement that the President is emphatic in his determination to maintain his position and that "the question is not open to further argument."

Gov. Higgins may not know more on the subject than other people who "give out statements." The country is so accustomed to having statements given out, whenever there is an opening for one, that they are more or less unconvincing. Still the chances that Gov. Higgins is right are at least 99 to 1.

Theodore Roosevelt is a multifarious sort of a person and the presidential dignity will never change him in that respect. He can be a violent reformer, charging up San Juan Hill to capture a trust citadel one week and the next week a "stand patter" on Dingleyism, consulting with Cannon and other leaders about raising a campaign fund, on the general ground that trusts shall never be reformed except by their friends.

He can do a hundred or a thousand other things of this kind and still be Theodore Roosevelt, son of his father and grandson of his grandfather. He would see no inconsistency in himself in turning all the handsprings and double somersaults required of him as a former independent and civil service reformer, who has been educated as a Rough Rider and graduated into a strenuous party man.

But to break a gentleman's word after it has been publicly pledged is a different matter. No matter how much somersaulting Theodore Roosevelt, son of his father and grandson of his grandfather, may do in politics, he expects to land on his feet finally.

THE PANAMA BOND.

A correspondent asks why the Government can sell the Panama Canal bonds, bearing 2 per cent interest, at an average price of 103¾.

The reason is that their real worth is measured, not by the interest rate, but by their usefulness as a basis for paper money issues by national banks.

No investor would think of putting his money into a 2 per cent security redeemable in 10 years. The best investment can be found bearing 4 to 5 per cent. Against them a 2 per cent has no attraction.

But the profit in them to the banks of issue is considerable since they support notes or loans upon which high rates of interest are often obtained. All these bonds will sooner or later find their way into the vaults of the national banks. Nobody else wants them.

The "Black Hand" Society of St. Louis, which was supposed to be a mysterious organization of predatory Italians, proves to be composed of a single American bearing a German name. It is thus all the police fictions of criminal "gangs" dissipate.

JUDGE BARCLAY AND THE POETS' UNION.

Former Judge Barclay's application for a card from the Poets' Union has been marked 23. He is advised that the members of the guild hold him in high esteem as a man and as a patron, but regard for the sacred rules of the craft compels them to deny him more than honorary membership. The Union recently passed upon a similar application from Dr. Calvin M. Woodward, whose lilt, "What Do We Plant When We Plant This Tree," was offered as a proof of his ability and found wanting in meter, rhyme and cetera. This was a painful episode and so afflicted certain members that it is said the recent harsh ruling of Dr. Young Brown against the admission of habitual alcoholics to the City Hospital arose from their persistent effort to drown regret.

The case of Barclay was the cause of much pain to the Poets' Union, but may not result so direfully as the membership has been depleted and those who remain have discarded the spirit of melancholy for the more profitable genius of optimism. While they condemn Barclay verses which appear in the latest volume of the Missouri Court of Appeals reports, they find in them evidence of a mental attitude from which much effort toward better work may be expected. The verses bear the title, "The Lien That Liened Too Far"—a merry jest which the short-haired poets found exceedingly provocative of laughter. The first stanza, or, to be more accurate, the first group of lines, is as follows:

This is the road the company built,
This is the ballast of stone they spilt
Along the road the company built.
This the mill on the faraway hill,
Which crushed the ballast of stone they spilt
Along the road the company built.
This the man with crowbar and drill,
Who quarried the rock which was crushed by the mill
That made the ballast of stone they spilt
Along the road the company built.

It is not necessary to go deeper into the case of Barclay to find the reason for his rejection. A man who is under compulsion to use built as a rhyme word four times and spilt three times in one alleged stanza, so-called, of ten lines, is not even qualified for admission to class B, wherein the real estate advertising couplet makers are grouped. This was recognized by all the members of the committee, and when they reported that the former Judge attached something he called a "l'envoy" to his lines the Union unanimously gave him the lemon.

A Texas Postmaster thinks that Texas will soon be Republican. There are Democrats who are equally hopeful of Pennsylvania.

The story of partial intoxication from a meal of vegetables is alarming. Must we put the lid on the vegetarian restaurants, too?

WILL HAVE TO TRY AGAIN.

From the New York World.

In a recent article the Cosmopolitan Magazine made a vicious attack upon Senator Bailey, in which the writer described Senator Gorman as having been chairman of the Senate Finance Committee when the Wilson bill was mutilated. Senator Bailey replied to the article in a speech in which he referred to the ignorance displayed by the writer. In an editorial printed in the August number the Cosmopolitan admits that it blundered in calling Gorman chairman of the Finance Committee. The writer "should have said the Ways and Means Committee." There is no Ways and Means Committee in the Senate, and never was. The Ways and Means Committee belongs to the House. It is evident that the Cosmopolitan will have to take another course in elementary civil government before it can get the matter straightened out.

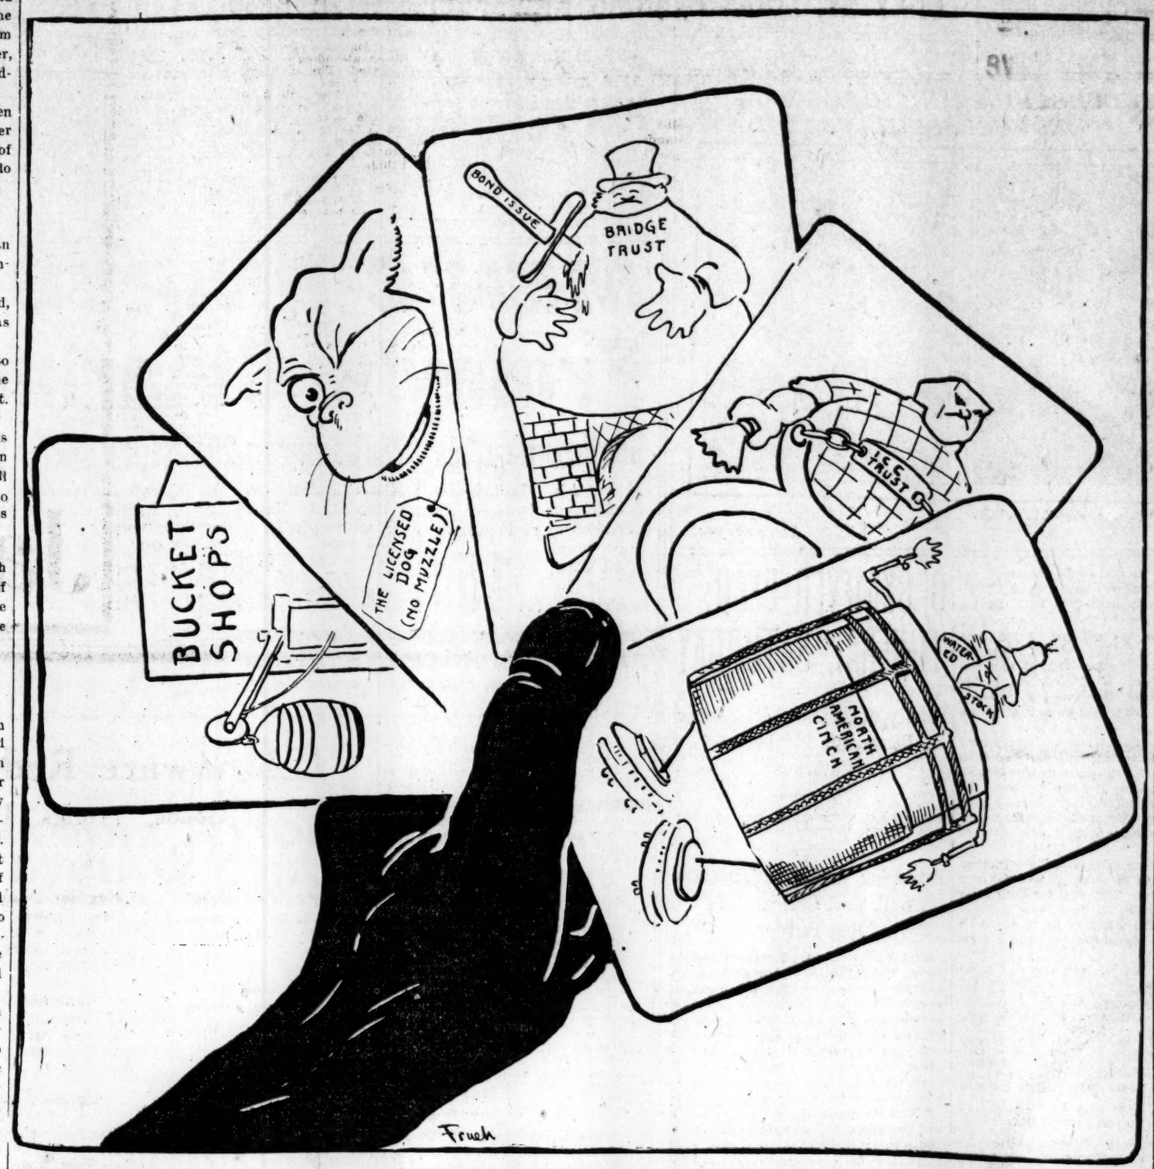

STANDARD OIL SMARTNESS.

From Collier's Weekly.

No attempt to account for the Standard Oil Co. as to its past, or to deal with it as to its present, can get very far without keeping in the foreground one large fact to which William H. Vanderbilt called prophetic attention nearly thirty years ago. At one of that long series of futile legislative investigations, Mr. Vanderbilt was a witness, unfriendly, or at least impartial, toward the Standard company. "I don't believe," he said, "that by any legislative enactment, or anything else, through any of the States, or all of the States, you can keep such men down. They will be on top all the time. You see if they are not. * * * There is no question about it, but that these men—and if you come into contact with them I guess you will come to the same conclusion I came to long ago—I think they are smarter fellows than I am, a good deal. They are very enterprising and smart men. I never came in contact with any class of men as smart and as able as they are in their business." This was the frank tribute of one business man to what he deemed superior business ability in Rockefeller, Rogers, Archbold, Dodd and their associates. But Mr. Vanderbilt implied, and very likely sincerely believed, that, because these men are smarter than most men, there is nothing to be done about their iniquities. Therein he belonged to his time and differed from our own.

ST. LOUISANS IN LONDON.

Col. Mose Wetmore was out bright and early yesterday morning, and he walked down from the Hotel Cecil to Trafalgar Square for a constitutional. Observing the statue of Nelson, he walked around it a couple of times and then asked a bobby:

"Who is it?"

"Commodoré Nelson," said the bobby.

"Did lightning knock one of the arms off the statue?" asked the Colonel.

Festus J. Wade went around to see the Bank of England.

"Why, is it closed this time of day?" he asked of a bobby.

"Not husually," said the officer, "but you see, sir, Mr. Rockefeller's ship was sighted off the Lizard this morning."

Breckinridge Jones was standing in the rotunda of the Cecil.

"Mr. Francis! Mr. Francis!" called a messenger boy, running about with a cablegram.

"See here, boy!" shouted Mr. Jones. "What is it, sir?"

"If you want Mr. Francis you'll never get him that way. Call for Gov. Francis."

"All right, sir. Gov. Francis! Gov. Francis!"

"Here!" answered the Governor, stepping from behind a pillar.

BACKING A BOY

By Ripley D. Saunders.

Say!
Im backing a boy in a lemonade stand—and he's the Queen o' the May!
A regular boy, with a freckled face,
But he come to me and stated his case
Like a man.
Wanted to help the tenement tots—that was his plan.
Said if he just had enough
To buy some lemons and cakes and ice cream and such like stuff,
He'd do a smashing business, and every red cent
Would go to help some poor tot in a tenement
To get free ice and pure milk to fight the grim summer through
With a chance for life—say, that boy'll do.
He was dead in earnest, and when I'd listened awhile
I'll just be dadblamed if he couldn't have had my whole pile!
Gee whiz!
This is the best fun I ever saw, this backing a boy in the charity biz!

Never saw such a boy!
Why, sir, he just fairly danced with joy
When I went good for the financial end of his contract, and now
He's working like a house afire—you know how a boy works, anyhow,
When he puts his heart into a thing—
His lemonade stand is just going to make the welkin ring!
And he's drumming up trade to beat the band—
And so am I—for that same lemonade stand.
And if he don't break the record, I'll eat my hat—
For it's all to help the poor little tots of Poverty Flat!

Say!
Maybe you don't think a man feels good working that way?
Why, sir, I'm a boy again, and I'll go broke
But what this enterprise pans out rich—you watch my smoke!
Me and the boy, we're partners, and I'll see
That he takes in a big fat pile for the tenement children—me!
And, incidentally, I want that boy to win
The Post-Dispatch prize watch—I want it like sin!
And I'm going to help him get it, knowing, too,
How much good the profits from our business'll do
The little ones of the tenements—Say!
There ain't no better business on this earth today
Than a man helping a boy to help other children—See?
It just suits me!

A LIE OF ANCIENT ROME

Wallace Irwin, in The Reader for August.

A Senator of ancient Rome
Quite late one night was going home,
With his hic, haec, hoc,
As he walked around the block,
And the moon was on the grand old Coloseum.
Profoundly wished that conscript peer
To hail a hansom charioteer.
With his hic, haec, hoc,
As he trudged around the block,
But he didn't have the Roman coin to fee 'em.

At last he said: "Great Caesar's ghost!
I'm either stolen, strayed or lost
With my hic, haec, hoc.
It is nearly three o'clock
And seven moons are shining on the Tiber.
I've looked too much, mescems, since lunch
On Scipio's Falernian punch,
With my hic, haec, hoc.
And this walk around the block
Is hard upon a jolly old imbiber."

At last he walked so far, they say,
He passed the noble Appian way
With his hic, haec, hoc,
And it gave him such a shock
That he almost lost his Latin conjugation,
When a praetorian on his round
That rashly roaming Roman found
And he said, "Hac hunc!
If ye haven't got no bunk
Come hither and I'll lock you in the station."

So late next day to ancient Rome
That Senator went meekly home,
With his hic, haec, hoc—
It was 4 p. m. o'clock,
And his caput seemed too large for Polyphemus.
When questioned, "Whither didst thou hie?"
He tersely answered, "Alibi!
With my hic, haec, hoc—
I have traveled every block
Of this grand old town of Romulus and Remus!"

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

This column is open for discussion of public questions. Letters should not exceed 150 words.

Is This Just?

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Where do the police of St. Louis keep themselves, and how many men are there supposed to be on the force?

Occasionally I see one about Broadway and Washington avenue who I suppose is put there to see to the safety of the public in crossing the street. But they show great ignorance of locations of places right on their own beats. Why cannot an attempt at least be made in St. Louis to put men on the force, young men, as in New York, who have some intelligence and would know at least the names of the streets? Ask a policeman if you happen to see one, any simple question as to location of buildings, what the name of the river is in front of the city, how to reach Forest Park and I'll bet there is not one in five can answer you these three ordinary questions correctly. Ask a downtown policeman where any very prominent wholesale dry goods or shoe house is within a few blocks of where he is standing and he cannot tell you, and seems surprised that he should be expected to know such things.

TRAVELING MAN.

A Nuisance.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Forest Park, with its rare natural loveliness and the added attraction of the afternoon band concert, has become the week-end haven of enjoyment for thousands of tired St. Louisans and is a potent auxiliary of the million population idea.

But what pilgrim who has sought its cool restfulness has not, in meandering through those shady boulevards, inhaled the delectable aroma of the majestic River de Sewer as it winds its reeking pathway in and out of the most beautiful spots in the park?

It exudes the most insistent, incisive vapor that was ever dignified by the name of stink. It clogs up your nostrils and alights in chunks in your hair. It has been known to settle down on the back seat of a two-seated rig and ride there for days, to the total exclusion of any occupant. If no one is large enough to suggest a course of action by the city, will someone please suggest some kind of appliance which one could wear over his face when he takes his twins out to the park on a Sunday afternoon.

J. MARX.

Camp Jackson Place.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I notice in your letters from the people in yesterday's Post-Dispatch a suggestion that the city acquire for park purposes the squares from Channing avenue to Grand avenue and from Pine street to Lindell. This tract was also in the proposed plan for beautifying the city offered by Mr. Chivis. I believe the location most admirable and the suggestion very opportune. There is so much of history connected with this spot, the site of "Old Camp Jackson," that an effort should be made to preserve its identity, for on this spot was virtually decided the momentous question whether Missouri would cast her lot in the Civil War with the North or the South. Let us by all means have a Camp Jackson Park.

"AN OLD CITIZEN."

Here's the Girl.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I would like to say to "One Who Has Had Experience" that he really must be blind. There are many girls who could do as much towards making a home as the men. I know that I for one can prepare and cook a meal and sew on a few buttons, although I am a bookkeeper in an office. Now, I think that the trouble with too many young men they don't give a girl credit for knowing anything besides having a good time. I am 21 years old and I wish to say that "One Who Has Had Experience" had better keep his eyes open or he is liable to be twice 22. Perhaps he would expect his wife to do the housework and still work to bring in an income equal to his.

OSWALD.—The most valuable drug in sugar diabetes is opium. The disease should be treated by a capable physician. Galvanic current is sometimes of value. To relieve the thirst: Potassi phosphat 2 parts, aquae 75 parts.
NEW.—To reduce abdomen and make chest and shoulders larger, persist in throwing the chest forward, breathing deeply, and keeping an erect position, sitting or standing. You must, of course, live moderately in all respects. Sassafras tea reduces flesh.
SUSAN.—A writer on freckles says "Nothing will remove them permanently; lotions may cause them to bleach out for a while, but the first kiss of the sun, and there they are again. The best and only way to keep freckles off is to wear a yellow chiffon veil when going out."
Z.—We know of no law determining whether tenant of upper flat has same yard rights as the tenant below. Better put the matter in writing whenever you rent an upper flat. As the lower tenant has to clean off the front snow he may think he has all the yard rights as a compensation.
SHOEMAKER.—Hottest St. Louis days: 1838, July, 101; 1850, August, 102; 1856 and 1857, July, 102; 1860, July, 104; 1861, July, 102; 1864, September, 102; 1868, July, 102; 1870, June and July, 102; 1874, Aug. 11, 101; 1880, Aug. 19, 101; 1881, Aug. 12, 106; 1901, July 24, 107.1. We have not day of month until 1874.
J. N. M.—Supposing a hole in the ground, 25 miles deep and 25 miles square, a stream of water 3 miles wide and 50 feet deep running in same at rate of 3 miles an hour, it would take 550,000 hours to fill up the hole, making no allowance for evaporation and for earth curvature on the water surface.
JONES.—We recall no law forbidding a foreigner to put up the flag of his country on his premises, but he is foolish to do so. He should always put the American flag with it when he wants to make a display of bunting. The display of a foreign flag by an individual foreigner is meaningless.
AUGUST PARK CONCERTS.—2, 5, 12, 14, 19, 23, 26, 30, Forest; 4, Forest Park birdcage; 7, 28, St. Louis; 5, 9, 19, 22, Carondelet; 13, Gamble place; 14, Benton; 12, 15, 26, 29, O'Fallon; 17, Carr; 20, Hyde; 24, Fountain; 7, 28, Lafayette. Playgrounds: 1, 14, La Salle; 9, Model; 11, 23, Mullanphy; 16, 30, Fowler.
M. L.—Use turpentine freely wherever moths are suspected. Or try gasoline, used without stint, one room at a time. Soak everything in it, close the room and do not enter it for 24 hours. Go in then in the day time; open doors and windows, sweep and dust, burning the contents of your dustpan.
UZ.—We do not tell monthly tenant he is entitled to stay one month longer, after notice to vacate, if he pays in advance, because notice to vacate is often given without reference to payment. The tenant never states to us that he hasn't paid. Common sense would suggest to a tenant that if he is in arrears he can remain by paying up.
ANXIOUS.—Newspaper reporter must know what news is, what his paper wants, and how to get it. This, if he is apt, he gradually learns. Young man with thorough grammar school education can succeed if he has the right stuff in him. Shorthand is an aid, but not a necessity. He should constantly try to learn all he can of everything.
SALLIE.—Canned corn: Put ripe corn on the fire in boiling salted water and cook for 20 minutes. Take from fire and cut from cob. Pack in jars, cover the corn with the water in which it was boiled, and set jars over fire in board and deep dishpan. Pour water all about jars, bring this to a hard boil, let this continue five minutes, then seal at once. Keep in dark place.
C.—One authority on mourning says: "Wear only such pieces of jewelry as are strictly necessary and only when they are made of dull jet or gunmetal." Another says: "Diamonds are permissible even in first mourning; pearls also can be worn." Perhaps it should depend upon your own feeling in the matter. What one wears may or may not indicate respect for the dead or grief for them.
E.—How you should dress at a midday country wedding depends upon whether it is to be stylish. Ordinary attire would not be out of place among plain, common-sense people. Groom at stylish wedding wears black or dark blue frock coat with waistcoat to match or a waistcoat of white pique, gray trousers or trousers with quiet stripes over dark blue ground producing gray effect, full folded white silk or satin tie or one with brocaded figures on white background with pearl pin, patent leather shoes. At an informal home wedding, both bride and groom may dispense with gloves.

HOW TO MAKE PAPER FLOWERS

Every boy and girl who will keep a store and lemonade stand Saturday for the Post-Dispatch Free Ice and Pure Milk Fund will study to make their stands attractive. Simple decorations may be made at home in leisure hours with paper flowers. Roses are very simple. Green bows can be found on any lawn or lot for this purpose; the sweet clover is very appropriate. Everything should be done for a cool, clean appearance. The roses may be made of pink or red tissue paper. First slit the paper, then curl the corners with a knife or scissors. This forms a leaf. After getting the leaf effect, roll up the petals and pin together. The paper sells for 2 cents a sheet, and 15 or 20 roses may be made out of a sheet.

..Get a sign from one of the young ladies at the counter in the office of the Post-Dispatch, 210-212 Broadway, and tack it on your lemonade stand. These signs are free. Work hard on Saturday and you may win the Gold Watch which the Post-Dispatch will give to that child who earns the largest sum for the Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund. Only children may compete for this prize. Grownups may help, if they choose, but the prize is for the children and all must "tote fair."

When the hundreds of little boys and girls are upon the street corners Saturday selling lemonade for the Post-Dispatch Free Milk and Ice Fund little Annie Kopinski will be in her own dreary alley playing mother to her infant sister, Victoria Kopinski For her there will be none of the fun and merriment of the other children. She will be compelled to stay home the entire day with her little charge. She will never know what a delight it is to sell lemonade and play store to raise money for the poor. In fact Annie and her family will be beneficiaries of the charity.

Baby Victoria is on the pure milk list. Every morning her sister Annie gets several bottles of sterilized milk from the Neidringhaus Mission, a short distance from their home, in the rear of 1420 North Seventh street. Early in the morning Mrs. Kopinski, the mother of the children, leaves the house and begins her day's work in a rag shop. It is unpleasant, unhealthful work, sorting over old rags, but Mrs. Kopinski thinks of the children who must be provided for, and she starts off with a right good will. When night comes and she returns home she is well nigh exhausted, but the next day she returns to work just the same.

Annie, who takes care of the 1-year-old baby during her mother's absence, has been deprived of her schooling to a great extent. She is likely to grow up uneducated, because she must stay at home and watch that baby. Then, too, in summer time, when other children are playing and going to picnics, she must remain at home.

Annie Kopinski has grown accustomed to playing mother. She wastes no time lamenting over misfortune. Really she is a happy faced child and she is glad to know her little sister is healthy again.

The infant was sick near unto death four weeks ago. She had been fed the poisonous milk. It caused a weakening illness that would have ended fatally, had not an enlightened neighbor told Mrs. Kopinski of the "mission milk." The Pure Milk Commission's sterilized and modified milk was obtained. The baby's transformation to a healthy state has been rapid.

The pure milk in this case as in hundreds of others proved a life saver. It is such cases the Post-Dispatch wishes to reach through the fund for which it seeks subscriptions. It is for this fund the children of St. Louis will sell lemonade next Saturday. All the pennies, dimes and nickels they make will be turned into the fund to help and save the suffering babies of the poor in the tenements.

And while the children are doing their part for the children of the poor, the men can help by buying the lemonade, they can help, directly, by sending their money straight to the Post-Dispatch office. Send in the dollars while the willing little ones send in the nickels and dimes they earn in a just cause.

From Louisiana.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
I send herewith postoffice money order for $1 as a donation to the cause. Would like to send more if I was able. Yours to live.

My contribution is small, but I feel like it will help make the big ones.
HELP FOR THE BABIES.

Blessing on the Cause.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
God bless the cause taken up for the babies. Accept this little contribution collected from employes of fourth floor, Lewis Publishing Co.

Children Entertain.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Inclosed please find $2, the proceeds of an entertainment given for the benefit of the Free Ice and Pure Food Fund. It was given at the home of Mr. Sackie, 3937 Folsom avenue, Monday evening, July 23, 1906, by the children of Folsom avenue.
Songs, recitations and drills were the principal events of the evening.
Miss Florence Remington drilled the children and those who took part were: Margaret Garton, Theresa Rickrateader, Iola Sackie, Ollie Remington, Helen Myers, Rowena Duckworth and Mildred Sackie.

Bright Children Swell Fund.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Enclosed you will find $2.15, collected for the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund from an entertainment given on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Wertheimer, 1420 North Fourteenth street, by Miss Fannie Silverman, Maurice Stahl and Dewey Wertheimer. The tickets were sold at 1 cent, and 215 tickets were sold. The audience was entertained by Miss Rosa Stahl, recitations; Misses Fannie Silverman, Annie Suckerman and Celia Goldstein, songs; also Dewey and Dolph Wertheimer, singing, recitations, dancing and jigging, were the features of the evening. They were also entertained by Master Maurie Stahl with his moving pictures. Prizes were given those who sold the most tickets which were won by Dewey Wertheimer, Rosa Stahl and Adolph Wertheimer. The prizes were a silver cup, a stein and a gold pin. Every child was presented with a present. Refreshments were served after the entertainment. Hoping this will help to swell the fund, I remain, respectfully, 1420 Biddle street. MRS. L. STAHL.

JUDGE RULES NO KISS MONOPOLY

Special to the Post-Dispatch
KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 26.—Because David Tent, a 17-year-old boy, has a mania for kissing pretty girls who pass on the street, he is to be sent out of the city. The boy came here recently from Beatrice, Neb., where he had been attending a school for the feeble minded. The boy has been arrested several times. Col. J. C. Greenman, humane officer, told Judge Kyle in Police Court that the boy was incorrigible.
"We both know that Kansas City girls like to be kissed, Judge," said Col. Greenman, "but I doubt if they care to have a 17-year-old boy monopolize things."
"I agree with you there, Colonel," replied the Judge. "We will ship the youngster back to the wilds and attend to this business ourselves."

Lost and Found

IF YOU LOSE ANYTHING—Advertise it here. It will be returned to you if an honest person finds it. Remarkable recoveries are brought about every day through this column. All druggists receive Want Ads for the Post-Dispatch at office rates.
IF YOU FIND ANYTHING—Bring it to the Post-Dispatch Lost and Found Bureau, 210-212 North Broadway. Get a claim check for it. Have it advertised. Reclaim it if the owner does not.
THE LAW—People who find lost articles are interested in knowing that the State law (sections 8475 to 8489, Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1899) is strict in requiring them to seek the owners through advertisement and otherwise, and that a failure to do so involves a severe penalty if same can be proven.

LIDLESS BELLEVILLE WELCOMES THIRSTY FROM LID TOWNS

Mayor Kern Says His Municipality Will Never Close Saloons on Sundays, That the Residents Love Liberty—Says Prohibition Breeds Much Hypocrisy.

Belleville, through her Mayor, Fred J. Kern, welcomes the lidded world and offers it the hospitality of a community that has never known and never expects to know the meaning of the potent three-lettered word, L-I-D.

These are his words: "The world is welcome to Belleville. Its citizens can't come to thick or too fast to please us. We shall be glad if we can share with them the liberty we possess.

"Our town has more liberty and less vice than any other town in the world. I expect no trouble from the guests that will come to Belleville as a result of the lid. We shall not put them in classes and refer to some of them as 'riff-raff.' We shall treat all alike. If a man wears common clothing that will make no difference to us. He shall be given the same consideration as if he wore the best.

"Should the crowds that come become unmanageable the citizens of Belleville will assist the police force in maintaining order.

Citizens Aid the Police.

"This has been done in the past, and the citizens did the work willingly and asked no pay for their services. If every man in Belleville has to be made a police officer because of the lids in other cities there will still be no lid in Belleville."

Mayor Kern said his words slowly, but positively, as he sat in the swinging chair of his book-walled "den." An electric fan was above his head, but it had nothing to do but suggest comfort, the air that came through the half-closed shutters was not in need of fanning.

The "den" is his editorial sanctum, since Mayor Kern is also the editor of a daily paper, the Belleville News-Democrat, as well as the Mayor of his town.

He is a large, healthy-looking man whose light-colored hair permits his high forehead as much liberty as it pleases, but whose grayish-blue eyes have a discerning look and seem possessed of an ability to analyze in two glances all those upon whom they may look.

His mouth is small and has a penchant for the sarcastic look. It can say words well, and has given its owner a reputation as a speaker of ability.

Definition of the "Lid."

The Mayor of Belleville is better looking when he discards sarcasm and lets himslf appear as a frank-faced, kindly chief executive of a quiet, law-abiding community.

This is his definition of the word "lid": "That which is more productive of hypocrites than any other device conceived by the ingenuity of man."

The Mayor of Belleville does not make up definitions and then let them stand or fall on their own merits. He gives you an instance every time. Here's the one that serves for this: "I visited in an Illinois town that has a lid recently. In Illinois the lid is dependent upon the Mayor of the town. He has lid power like unto that of the Governor of Missouri. If an Illinois Mayor wants a lid he can have it.

"I was the guest of the Mayor of this town. He had been elected upon a lid ticket and the saloons in his town were closed. At least their front doors were. I went with the Mayor into the rear door of a saloon and drunk with him the drinks that were served by the proprietor of the saloon. As he drank the Mayor laughed at the smartness of the saloon keeper in eluding the law.

Lid Near Belleville.

"Remember that that man's opponent, who was openly anti-lid, was defeated."

The lid will be within three miles of Belleville after Tuesday if the annexation election which will cause Belleville to expand several miles westward is successful.

Until last Sunday there was no lid between Belleville and the Mississippi River, but East St. Louis went under cover that day and now Belleville is bounded on the West by the East St. Louis lid and surrounded on other sides by the lids of other Southern Illinois towns.

Lids are more general in Illinois than is usually supposed. Mayor Kern says that there is scarcely a town in Illinois of the same size as Belleville that is without a whole or partial lid.

"They comply with the law, then?" was asked.

"Public sentiment makes law," he answered. "Let those who will, call us law violators. There is an old law on the statute books in regard to Sunday closing of saloons. We do not break it, we just set it aside by common consent.

Some Places Need Lid.

"I grant that there are some places in the world where a lid is necessary. Belleville is not one of these. I believe also that public sentiment should be hearkened to. If the members of the community want a lid they should have it.

"There is no sentiment, so far as I know, in favor of a lid in Belleville. The church people have never asked for it. I don't know whether we have a W. C. T. U. We used to, some time ago, but no request has come to my office from that organization about the lid.

"Let those who talk of law breaking think twice before they apply the term to us of Belleville. We actually keep the laws that other cities of larger size make a pretence at observing. There is no gambling in Belleville, there are no winerooms, there is no social evil.

"Time was when there was a great deal of gambling. I declared against it when the mothers of the town came and begged me to do so. Ours is a town where there are many young men who make good salaries, for instance glass blowers, machinists and workers in other factories. Gamblers from St. Louis, East St. Louis and others from Belleville used to fleece them of their money.

Raids Stopped Gambling.

"Homes were in want because of the gambling and I was informed. I had raids, real raids, not make-believe ones, made upon the gambling houses. Arrests were made and among those arrested were some of the leading young men of the town who were personal frinds of mine. They were prosecuted and gambling died.

"We have no slot machines. They were disposed of in a like manner.

"The social evil we do not permit at all, but we do keep our saloons open on Sunday. We believe that the Sunday is not a day for long faces, but a day of enjoyment and we want others as well as ourselves to have a good time.

"Some speak of 'personal liberty,' we call the right to have saloons open merely liberty.

"Order in Belleville, which is a city of 25,000, is kept by a police force made up of a Chief, a Captain, a Sergeant and 15 patrolmen. We had a circus in Belleville last Sunday and the lid was on in East St. Louis yet our arrests numbered but three.

More Harm Than Good.

"We are spending more money for street improvements than any town of the same size in the United States. We have contracted for an antiseptic sewer that will cost $75,000. Let no one say that because we refuse to follow the fashion in lids that we are unprogressive.

"No man was ever made good by the lid. The lid has done more harm than good. The lid is one piece of prohibition, and experience has demonstrated that while prohibition makes hypocrites and sneaks of men it does not promote temperance. I am against the lid."

Mayor Kern was born on a farm near Belleville. He was a coal miner in his youth, but because of an accident which occurred in his 20th year he studied for the teaching profession and was for several terms a student at the State Normal School at Normal, Ill. He taught school five years and then became interested in newspaper work. He is now the editor and proprietor of the News-Democrat.

He was elected to Congress in 1900 by the Democratic party. At the close of his term he was elected Mayor of Belleville on the Good Government ticket. He has held that position for two terms.

DIAMOND MEDAL FOR MISS CONNOLE

Seven Elocutionists Competed for Honors at the Piasa Chautauqua.

Miss Martha Connole of Carrollton, Greene County, won the diamond medal in the W. C. T. U. declamatory contest at the Piasa Chautauqua Wednesday night. There were seven contestants. The other six were: Miss Fannie Catt, Jersey County; Miss Lucille Ewers, Madison County; Miss Roxy Blackburn, Jersey County; Miss Katibel McInerney, Madison County; Vallee Appel, Sangamon County, and Julian Fay, Fayette County.

The exercises took place at the auditorium, which was crowded, delegation of friends of the contestants swelling the attendance. The subject of Miss Connole's declamation was "The Court of Last Appeal." The diamond medal was presented to her by Miss Epha Marshall of Abingdon, Ill., a State W. C. T. U. worker.

The contest was preceded by a concert, in which Alton talent principally appeared. The entertainers included Miss Frieda Gossrau, Miss Nellie Bradish, Miss Elizabeth Maxfield, Miss Pauline Guy, Miss Lillian Bauer, Fred Haeberlie, Miss Gertrude Armstrong, Prof. G. C. W. Piper, Miss Theo Erbeck, Miss Florence Didlake and Miss Maud Wood.

In the afternoon an address was delivered by Mrs. O. R. Lake of St. Louis, vice-president of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union. At a W. C. T. U. institute conducted by Miss Marshall the principal address was delivered by Dr. Carolyn Geisel of Battle Creek, Mich.

Thursday a Sunday school institute began, under the direction of Henry Moser, president of the Illinois State Sunday School Association. In the afternoon Sylvester A. Long lectured on "Lightning and Toothpicks." Thursday night there will be moving pictures, including some taken last year at Chautauqua.

The Sunday Post-Dispatch has over ONE-HALF MILLION more readers than any other newspaper west of the Mississippi.

BAD MISTAKES MADE IN SELECTING TREATMENT.

B. F. French, M. D.

Few men realize the importance of the care that should be exercised in selecting skilled treatment for their condition, and lay no blame on themselves for often being disappointed because of not employing the services of an experienced, scientific specialist. They place confidence in any doctor because he claims to be able to cure them. Men who treat with a specialist of age and experience usually have their troubles removed, and are not compelled to go from one physician to another, after being sorely discouraged, uncured and deceived. If you want to be among the number I have cured and dismissed, consult me and get cured by the "Dr. French way," which has proved so successful in the past.

COME TO SEE ME—PAY ME FOR VALUE RECEIVED AND BEST YOU CAN.

My motto is to do enough for afflicted men to not only make them glad to pay me, but have them feel many times value received and grateful to me after their treatment is completed.

DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS

BETTER FEELING ON LOCAL EXCHANGE

Sales Are Small, but Prices Show a Tendency to Harden.

TRACTIONS ARE FIRM

Investors in Railways Fours Raise Their Bids Slightly From Yesterday.

The general range of prices on local securities showed very little change today, although there was a slightly better demand manifested in the market for several issues. National Bank of Commerce made a slight gain on the transfer of a small lot at $318 and Boatmen's Bank was steady at $250. These were the only active bank stocks at the early session.

In the traction securities prices were inclined to harden. United Railways common was wanted at a point advance at $48, although no sales were made. United Railways 4s gained ¼ of a point at $85.50 and the preferred was steady at $81.

Chicago Railways Equipment was the active miscellaneous issue on the transfer of a 100-share lot at $8.10. Shultz Belting was unchanged at par. The bond list was firm, with Brewery Association 6s the issue wanted at $102.25.

E. St. Louis News

Iron Molders' Union No. 110 Wednesday night elected the following officers: President, William Becker; vice-president, Nathan Allison; recording secretary, F. C. Schalk; corresponding secretary, J. B. Brannan; financial secretary and treasurer, Richard Barnett; trustees, Charles Stickford and William Hinckel.

Mahlon L. Milsted of East St. Louis and Miss Ethel Dornetta of Evansville, Ind., were married at the home of the bride in Evansville Wednesday.

Chester Beckette and Miss Dora Wilheim were married last night at the home of the bride's parents on Gaty avenue, by Rev. C. Bode, pastor of the German Evangelical Church.

Because they wanted to surprise their friends, Adolphus Delmore of 5848 Maffitt avenue and Miss Boni Busby of 2620 Market street, St. Louis, came to East St. Louis Wednesday afternoon and were married by Justice Brady.

John W. Morey of 3721 Lee avenue, St. Louis, and Miss Loretta Beesley of 1902 Palm street, St. Louis, were married in East St. Louis Wednesday afternoon by Justice Brady.

The members of the Arabian Athletic Club have arranged to give a wrestling bout between Frank Roehn of St. Louis and Kid Dominick of Chicago at their hall, 16 South Main street, at 2:30 p. m., Sunday.

Sergt. Wilson arrested George and Kerker Garaoren at 1009 Colas avenue Thursday morning on the charge of highway robbery, preferred by Paul Mike of 1500 Walnut street. Mike stated to the police that the brothers sent him word at 2 a. m. Thursday to call at their place, as they had a letter for him of much importance. When he went to their building he says that they grabbed him, and, after tearing his shirt from his back and biting his finger, they took $183 from a pocketbook which he carried inside his shirt.

Miss Kate Bowe, deputy collector of special taxes, is paying the assessments levied against the McKinley Railroad for its share of the paving done on the streets where it has laid its tracks in East St. Louis. Every property owner is to be paid 93 cents for every foot of ground he owns on these streets. Thursday she paid for Illinois avenue, Friday will be for College avenue, Monday, Tenth street, and Tuesday for Fifth street and St. Louis avenue. Miss Bowe is also requesting the property owners to sign a petition requesting the Council to grant the railroad company the right to lay its tracks on these streets. It is stated that the Council had some doubt about the validity of the ordinance, maintaining that the company did not have the requisite number of signatures to its petition.

Word was received Wednesday that Mrs. M. E. Abernathy of East St. Louis, 72 years old, had died suddenly in Centralia while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Cookrue. She is survived by three sons, A. W. F. L. and J. L. Abernathy of East St. Louis, and three daughters, Mrs. Emma Hellen of Birmingham, Ala.; Mrs. Minnie Cookrue of Centralia, Ill., and Nadine Abernathy of East St. Louis.

WALL STREET MARKET HOLDS ITS ADVANCE

Realizing Meets Good Absorption—Close Is With an Upward Tendency.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The stock market opened active and steady again today, with gains general throughout the list. The market continues very professional and the public are taking little part in the speculation.

London was inclined to follow our advance of yesterday and prices on Americans in that market were higher. The continued rise in the market in the past week in the face of the conditions prevailing in foreign markets has had a tendency to attract foreign investments on a small scale, although London was a heavy seller in the early week. Russian dispatches are still disturbing, but at present this phase of the situation is being ignored. Money market conditions are unchanged and the Bank of England's rate of discount remains at 4 per cent.

The Day's News.

The market presented a tired appearance in the second hour, when the over-night buying orders had been pretty well filled up. Special securities, such as Colorado Fuel, Smelting, Union Pacific and St. Paul were industriously bid up to keep the speculation moving, but the effect on the general market was less pronounced. The rise has been very rapid in the past ten days and has been engineered almost entirely by Eastern speculative interests. The general public have taken little part in the movement, with the exception of the eleventh-hour traders, who have been coming in during the past two days, more on the strength in the market than on conditions governing the ultimate level of prices. Whether a public buying movement on an extensive scale can be attracted to the market at the present level, in the face of the uncertain foreign conditions, remains to be seen, but unless it is soon attracted a considerable setback is in order. There is very little question that the advance of the past week has been largely the result of covering of short contracts by the rank and file of speculators, as well as the big shorts, who have been so confident of their position that they refused to cover until the advance assumed a very wide range. It is stated in well-informed quarters that the short interest created in the recent wave of pessimism that swept over the country was the largest that has prevailed in the market in over two years, estimates placing the outstanding contracts as high as 2,500,000 shares, and the big market interests evidently found it better policy to bid prices up and make these sellers take their holdings, rather than let the market sell off on the foreign situation and be compelled to absorb heavy liquidation from long holders throughout the country. The rumor mills were again grinding during the early market and one story in circulation was to the effect that the Union Pacific has acquired control of the St. Paul through Southern Pacific. This is unlikely, however, and at the meeting of the St. Paul directors today it is thought that the financing for the roads Pacific Coast extension will be announced and that the rights to St. Paul stockholders will amount to about 15 or 20 per cent. The market was steady at the noon period, with considerable realizing on. Call funds were in liberal supply at 2½ per cent.

The Closing.

The market continued to move upward and downward in an irregular manner in the late trading and the average level of prices showed many quick changes. The failure of the St. Paul directors to take any action on the expected new stock issue sent the security interested down to 180, compared to an earlier figure of 182¼, and caused a moderate reaction in the entire list. On the decline, however, the pressure of offerings was found to be light and traders bid the list up again. The closing was active and firm and showed changes both ways from yesterday.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS.

CATTLE—Receipts, 4000. Today's supply of 1200 natives and 2800 Southern cattle was mostly common and fair grades. The Texas cattle sold a shade lower, while best natives were steady and other kinds weak.

TWINS FLEE STUDIES.

Boys Who Had School in Vacation Run Away.

The police have been asked to aid F. A. Weisenborn of 1331 La Salle street in finding his nephews, Julius and Arthur Weisenborn, who he says ran away from home Tuesday. The boys are twins, and are not yet 11 years old. They live with their uncle, their paretns being dead.

Mr. Weisenborn says the boys have been attending a summer school near their home, but have objected because most of the neighbor boys are enjoying vacations. They attempted to run away a week ago, he says, but did not succeed.

He believes the boys are camping out in the vicinity of their home, as they secured a supply of food from a grocery at Thirteenth and Hickory streets on the day of their disappearance. They told the grocer they had been sent to the store by Mrs. Weisenborn.

EXPORT DEMAND HOLDS UP WHEAT

Prices at the Close, However, Show Little Change From Yesterday.

OTHER GRAINS SOLD

Improved Weather Is Reflected in Lower Range on Corn and Oats.

The wheat market developed a steady tone today, after an early weakness on the announcement of exports of about 1,300,000 bu from Southern ports. Yesterday's late decline was induced to a certain extent by the announcement that Western railroads had reduced their rates on wheat to the Chicago market and that a larger movement to that city would result. Today the Southwestern grain-carrying roads reduced rates to the gulf ports, thus neutralizing the action of the Western lines to a large extent.

Conditions in the growing wheat territory remain practically unchanged and enough crop damage reports were received from the Northwest to make the sellers uncertain of their position. Black rust damage reports are still coming to hand and even Hessian fly damage was reported by way of Minneapolis.

Valentine was reported a big buyer in the Chicago market and traders were inclined to follow this lead rather than favor the decline. The selling throughout the session came very largely from the professional shorts.

Chicago receipts overran the estimates about 80 cars and Minneapolis and Duluth reported 136 cars, against 148 last week, 148 last year and 121 two years ago. Local receipts were again light and the shipments only moderate. Clearances of wheat and flour were 224,000 bu.

Liverpool failed to pay any attention to the unsettled condition in Russia and prices on wheat at that market closed ⅛d lower. Corn futures also closed ⅛d lower. Paris prices were ½c up and Antwerp unchanged.

The Price Current says: "Scattered reports of rain on wheat in shock, but no material harm yet. Apparent fine yield and quality. Corn making good advancement. Oats short, but better than expected. Packing, 435,000, against 415,000 last year."

The Argentine shipments for this week are estimated by Broomhall at 1,800,000 bu of wheat and 2,800,000 bu of corn.

The Kansas State crop report says: "The close of this week completes the third with temperatures below normal continuously. The highest recorded temperature was 98, at Ellsworth, on the 21st, the lowest 49, at Mackville, on the 18th. With the exception of the week ending April 7 the precipitation was better distributed over the State the past week than any week of the season. Over the larger part of the State the rainfall continued three days, thus being especially beneficial."

Scattered showers in the corn belt caused easing in this grain and prices closed lower on slightly increased offerings. Weather is the controlling factor at present. Clearances were 211,000 bu.

Oats were easy, in sympathy with corn. Clearances were 3000 bu.

POST-DISPATCH PAGE OF SPORT

Edited by J. B. Sheridan

'THE SPORTSMAN'S NICHE

BY J. B. SHERIDAN

Mr. Morris Freund, a merchant of repute in St. Louis and an amateur reinsman of some note, charges that a horse owned by Mr. C. C. Hulsart of St. Louis, an equally reputable business man, has been raced at local matinees as C. C. H., is a "ringer," that is, a horse who is really Commodore Dewey, a bay gelding by Mohawk--Hambletonian, with a standard pacing record of 2:23. It is a serious violation of the trotting rules to race a horse, in any other but his own last registered name. It is also an offense against the rules to start a "marked" horse, that is, one with a standard record in matinee races. Further it is an infraction of the laws of the State of Missouri to start a horse in a race for a prize value or quality not named, under other than his properly registered name.

This being the case, it seems to me that it is up to the North St. Louis Gentlemen's Driving Club, of which both Freund and Hulsart are members, to investigate the charges made by the former gentleman in these premises and to learn the exact amount of truth or falsity in them. If Mr. Freund can prove his charge the parties found culpable should be punished to the very fullest extent of the trotting rules and the State law. If Mr. Freund cannot prove his charges he should be ruled off the trotting turf. For such is the manner of conduct of affairs among gentlemen of honor.

The Post-Dispatch does not assume that C. C. H. is a "ringer" or that Mr. Hulsart knew that he was other than a green horse or that Mr. Caldwell or anyone concerned knew that the horse was anything but an unmarked pacer. It is true, however, that Mr. Freund has made these charges. Therefore it is up to the North St. Louis Gentleman's Driving Club to investigate the affair, absolve the innocent or condemn the guilty.

The morning papers make light of the affair. One says that Secretary Blankenmeister of the driving club says that it does not amount to much. The other avers on its own density of insight alone, that it is a case of "much ado about nothing." I have known Mr. Blankenmeister a long time and would hate to think that he is the kind of man who would say that the fact that one member of his club charges that a horse belonging to another was "rung" under a false name in violation of the rules of trotting and laws of the State at a meeting of his club amounted to nothing. I feel sorry for a journalist who, when one gentleman tacitly accuses another of violating the laws of honor, trotting and the State, says that it is much ado about nothing.

Mr. Hulsart seems to be very much of a straightforward man. It may be that he was the innocent purchaser in this case and bought this horse as a green pacer. It may be, too, that Mr. Caldwell innocently sold him the horse as a green pacer. In fact, everybody may be, probably is, innocent. But in the light of the charges made by Mr. Freund it is the bounden duty of the North St. Louis Gentleman's Driving Club to thoroughly investigate the affair.

There are pleasing signs of a renaissance of public interest in track and field athletics. Some 15 years ago crowds of 10,000 persons to a track and field meet in St. Louis were not uncommon. In those days the city did not contain half the population it does today. Therefore, if affairs develop as a trained and experienced eye discerns it is not unreasonable that we shall see 30,000 spectators at athletic meets in St. Louis in the next few years.

There are a few things we might do in preparation for these expected crowds. The first will be, of course, to provide the athletes. St. Louis had better, if not as many men, 15 years ago than she has today. Undoubtedly we have the material, that is, the mere flesh and blood. We seem to lack the inclination.

The boys do not pursue athletics with avidity such as the Cabannes, Bebers, Murphys, Fletchers, Cahills, Weineckes, Rhodeses and other stars of the 80's evinced. There is a lack of energy among the athletes. They will not work. They must be pampered into training. They must have their expenses paid, their grounds taken care of, their flesh massaged and then want silver cups given them on golden platters.

When Charley Reber was a world's champion he dug his own pit for the broad jump and helped rake his own course for the 100 yards. I have seen the Washington University ball team of those years cut and rake and roll and dig its own diamond in the morning and play great ball on it in the afternoon. There was no talk of gate receipts or car fare or massage or cups or medals. The only reward for all this labor was the pleasure of pursuing athletics.

under our arms to Forest Park, hid our clothes in the bushes while we trained in the dark. I have seen Cahill and Weinecke and Nally and Rhodes climb the fence at Sportsman's Park at 4 a. m. to train before going to work. And we had world's champions in those days.

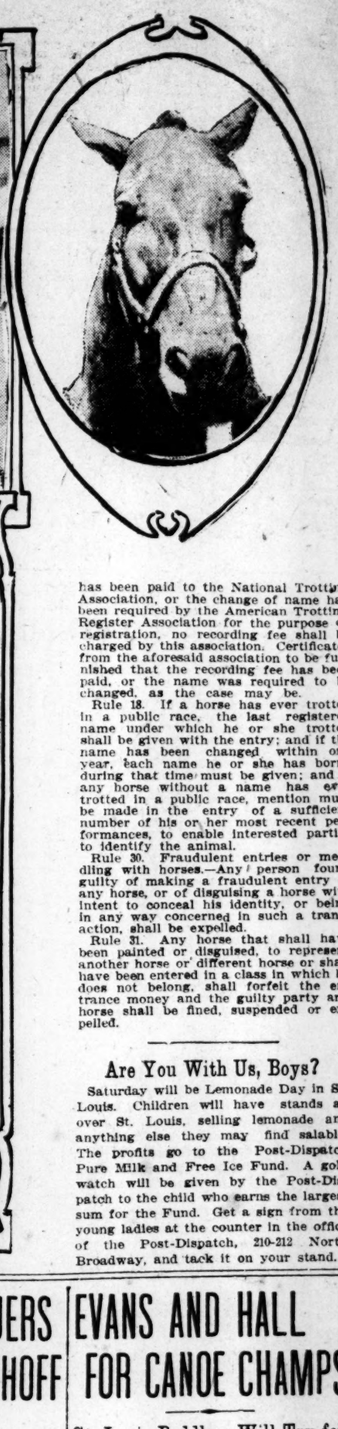

Now with trainers and rubbers and car fare paid and cinder tracks and alcohol and witch hazel and ground men and everything provided, our athletes have grown so fat that they cannot run fast enough to keep themselves warm.

Truly it seems that we are decaying from a very plethora of luxury.

THE ALLEGED RINGER

PHOTOGRAPHS OF C. C. H., THE HORSE WHICH MORRIS FREUND SAYS IS REALLY COMMODORE DEWEY.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ALLEGED RINGER.

The pacing horse C. C. H., owned by Mr. C. C. Hulsart of St. Louis, is, Mr. Morris Freund says, really Commodore Dewey, by Mohawk-Hambletonian, bred in 1896 by Jesse Fox, at Westgate, Io. C. C. H. is a bright bay, 16 hands high, with black points and no marking beyond some white hairs due to old saddle galls on the back and a few in the center of the forehead. The horse is a bit puffed about the hind fetlocks, especially on the nigh side. He has two wire cuts below the off fore fetlock, one on the inside of the nigh fore fetlock and one on the inside of the nigh hind fetlock.

That he is a horse of some age is evinced by the smoothness of his mouth and condition of the teeth. He is a well-necked animal, short forelegs, good Hambletonian head, but is a bit dropped in the back and ragged and gaunt about the loins and quarters.

TROTTING RULES BEARING ON THE CASE.

Every horse shall be named, and the name correctly and plainly written in the entry; and after starting in a public race such name shall not be changed without procuring a record thereof to be made in the office of the secretary of this association, for which there shall be paid a recording fee of $50, the fee to go to this association. For each violation of this requirement a fine of $100 may be imposed, together with suspension of the horse until paid, and no horse shall be thus recorded by a name that has been recorded for another horse.

Provided that when a recording fee has been paid to the National Trotting Association, or the change of name has been required by the American Trotting Register Association for the purpose of registration, no recording fee shall be charged by this association. Certificates from the aforesaid association to be furnished that the recording fee has been paid, or the name was required to be changed, as the case may be.

Rule 18. If a horse has ever trotted in a public race, the last registered name under which he or she trotted shall be given with the entry; and if the name has been changed within one year, each name he or she has borne during that time must be given; and if any horse without a name has ever trotted in a public race, mention must be made in the entry of a sufficient number of his or her most recent performances, to enable interested parties to identify the animal.

Rule 30. Fraudulent entries or meddling with horses.—Any person found guilty of making a fraudulent entry of any horse, or of disguising a horse with intent to conceal his identity, or being in any way concerned in such a transaction, shall be expelled.

Rule 31. Any horse that shall have been painted or disguised, to represent another horse or different horse or shall have been entered in a class in which he does not belong, shall forfeit the entrance money and the guilty party and horse shall be fined, suspended or expelled.

Tommy Burns, the heavyweight pugilist, is certainly unfortunate. In less than two months he has had two bouts declared off. His first, which was to have been with Bob Fitzsimmons before the Tuxedo A. C. of Essington, Pa., fell through on account of Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania refusing to allow the battle to come off, while his second, with Mike Schreck, which was billed for July 26 at Seattle, Wash., has been called off by the club officials.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

Beauty's charm, a satin skin, secured using Satin skin cream and Satin skin powder.

A match will probably be arranged in a few days between Joe Gans, the lightweight and welterweight champion, and Dave Holly, the colored lightweight of Philadelphia, who knocked out Rufe Turner, the California fighter, in the twentieth round of their battle at Stockton, Cal., a few weeks ago. The matchmaker of the Seattle (Wash.) A. C. is anxious to bring Gans and Holly together in a 20-round bout before his club. Gans has accepted the offer and Holly will probably do likewise.

Thief Frightened Away.

A burglar broke a window in the basement of the drug store of R. W. White at 3341 Lucas avenue and had cut a hole in the panel of the door leading from the basement stairway to the hall of the building when he was frightened away by some one moving in the house. The hole in the door was large enough for the burglar to have reached through and worked the lock from the opposite side.

RAVENS JUST DID SO SO EN ROUTE

McAleer's Team Won Half of Its Games Abroad, Which Is a Very Fair Showing.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The Ravens are en route to St. Louis and will arrive in the Mound City Thursday night. All the boys expressed themselves anxious to get back home and with the prospect of a long stay at Sportsman's Park.

Boston is to be met Friday in the initial contest of a series of four games, and Manager McAleer said that he would probably use Powell and O'Connor in the points against the Pilgrims.

The work of the brother-in-law battery has been one of the notable features of the Ravens' trip.

Powell lost but one game and O'Connor batted in good form and caught with the skill and coached the Ravens' pitchers with the same success that earned for him the title of "King" years ago.

The St. Louisans split even on the road, rather a remarkable record for a team that made rather a disappointing showing on the Sportsman's Park grounds during its last stay at home.

Sportsmen's Park patrons will be surprised at the improvement in Niles. This youngster is hitting, fielding and running the bags in a sensational manner.

He played third base in Wednesday's game, accepted four chances, and slammed out one of the four singles obtained by the St. Louis hitters.

Washington 2, St. Louis 0, was the way the score read after Wednesday's game.

The Ravens lost because they could not hit in sequence.

Glade pitched quite as good a game as Patten, who twirled for the Nationals, but Glade was as usual unlucky.

OF Interest to Inquirers

M.—Is a baserunner out if he is hit with a thrown ball? No.

H. H.—Have fanned out and struck out the same meaning? Yes.

A.—Does the record of Dan Kelly, made for the 100-yard dash stand? In order to have his record stand Kelly will have to apply to the Record Committee of the A. A. U. If the existing conditions as to wind, men holding the watches and length of the course satisfied the requirements, Kelly's record may be placed on the books.

P. L.—How old is Willie Keeler? About 36.

N.—What team finished first in 1903-4? National League, 1903, Pittsburg; 1904, New York. American League, 1903, Boston; 1904, Boston.

B. B.—In a game of baseball, first and second base are occupied and one out. Batter hits grounder to shortstop; shortstop throws ball to third baseman, who has one foot on base, he catches ball and attempts to touch runner. The ball is knocked out of his hand. Is the baserunner out or not? No.

HARE AND HOUNDS AT PADDLE AND SADDLE

Young Men and Women of the Valley Park Club Will Have Paper Chase Saturday.

Young men of the Paddle and Saddle Club, discontented with the artificial life of he city, who have been making a haven of their pretty clubhouse at Valley Park, Mo., on Saturdays and Sundays, have arranged an especially unique event for next Saturday afternoon in a hare and hound chase in which young ladies will be invited to participate.

Plenty of fresh air, combined with healthful exercise and a chance to enjoy beautiful scenery are features of the Paddle and Saddle Club's hare and hound rides and it is not anticipated that any trouble will be found securing volunteers from among the feminine friends of the hosts of the occasions.

A hare and hound horseback chase is modelled closely after the old English game of hare and hounds which occupies the attention of so many school boys.

Three hares mounted on horseback leave 15 minutes before the pack of hounds. The hares carry confetti which they sprinkle along the route they traverse. That the riding is made rather strenuous will be realized when it is noted that the hares are expected and usually do pick a course that lies through the thickest of brush and wildwood.

Among the members of the Paddle and Saddle who have signified their intention of competing in the chase are: Billy Rutter, Sam Stein, Frank Hall, Earl Sandusky, J. B. Sheridan, Will Hammes, Jim Arnott, Ed Meade, Walter Drey, W. W. Hoxton, Charles Cunningham, Leo Rassieur Jr., E. Koken, Ted Barstow, E. Drey, George Bradley, and W. Beecher.

Bernie Grace will officiate as judge of the day.

PRIDE O' THE PATCH PROUD OF THE TITLE

Young Harry Trendall, Who Is Matched to Fight Carol Cain, Rejoices in Sobriquet.

Both Cain and Harry Trendall are reported at weight for their 15-round boxing bout, which will be held under the auspices of the West End Club on the steamer Louisiana on Saturday night.

Many shrewd judges esteem Cain a comer, and say that the lad will surely defeat Trendall. Most of these critics pick Cain to win on a knockout.

Trendall's record, however, is more impressive than Cain's, and he must be credited with being the more experienced and seasoned boy of the two.

Trendall began his boxing career in 1903, and early earned the sobriquet, "Pride of the Patch," which has clung to him ever since.

"I'm rather proud of it, too," said Trendall Thursday, "and I found it went quite a way to bringing me some prominence in the East. All the clever boxers about Philadelphia and New York are Irish, and when a Trendall walked in on them and began to make a bid for success they began to look upon me as an usurper.

"Most of the boys thought I was English, and it looked like I was in to be dubbed the 'Cockney.' Young Fitzsimmons tipped some of them off that I could put the 'Pride of the Patch' as a handle to my name and that nailed it all hunky-dory for yours truly.

"Afterwards when I went on in any of the Eastern bouts I always asked to be introduced as Harry Trendall, 'Pride of the Patch.'"

"I began fighting in 1903," said Trendall. "Kid McGinty was the boy I fought, and I put him out in three rounds. The only time I was ever beaten was by Nick Santora. He put me out in 11 rounds. He couldn't do it now."

Trendall's record follows:

	1903.
Kid McGinty	knockout	3 rounds
Patsy Hurley	knockout	4 rounds
Kid Henessey	knockout	4 rounds
	1904.
Bob Noonan	knockout	2 rounds
Kid Block	knockout	2 rounds
Kid Barnstine	knockout	1 round
Frank Zacker	won	6 rounds
Kid Griffin	knockout	1 round
Patsy Hurley	knockout	1 round
Nick Santora	knockout	11 rounds
Buddy Glover	knockout	5 rounds
H. Rose	knockout	4 rounds
H. Worthington	knockout	1 round
Cap Hogan	knockout	5 rounds
Buddy Glover	won	6 rounds
	1905.
Dummy Schenk	draw	8 rounds
Young Laughrey	won	6 rounds
Spottie Clifford	won	6 rounds
Young Crosta	won	6 rounds
Kid Egan	won	6 rounds
Willie Moody	won	6 rounds
Jack Barry	knockout	1 round
Young Carey	won	6 rounds
Mike Malone	draw	6 rounds
Jimmie Carmen	knockout	6 rounds
Willie Moody	won	6 rounds
Young Kilpatrick	won	6 rounds
Kid Beebe	draw	6 rounds
Willie Lucas	draw	6 rounds
Young Laughrey	won	6 rounds
Jack Berla	won	6 rounds
Marty Kane	won	6 rounds

TROLLEY LEAGUERS SLAM SUDHOFF

Gillespie Team Gets to Former American League Star for Seventeen Hits.

Willie Sudhoff, "Wiz," and former American League pitcher, was not aware until Tuesday that the caliber of baseball played by Trolley League baseball teams had attained to a high degree of excellence since the days he used to play with the semi-professionals.

The awakening of Sudhoff was a feature of the Gillespie nine's victory over the Mount Olive team for the championship of Macoupin County, which Gillespie won, 11 to 5.

Mount Olive had gone to no little expense to secure the services of Sudhoff, who is a free lance just now on account of refusing to accept the terms offered him by the Kansas City club.

Opposing Sudhoff was the genial Mr. Taylor of the Springfield (Ill.) club, who shut out Pittsburg early in the season.

Mr. Taylor owns Gillespie, but his hold was shaken when it was announced in glaring posters that Willie Sudhoff, the American League's premier pitcher, was to pitch for Mount Olive.

Taylor draws $125 a month for pitching for Gillespie, and also occupies a position in Gillespie that pays him a larger salary than most bank officials receive.

These emoluments have been bestowed upon Taylor in recognition of his great ability as a ballplayer. When he was notified that Sudhoff was coming to town he grit his teeth, hitched up his trousers, took another chew of his cud and resolved to go out and do, die or down the midget.

Just how well Taylor accomplished the feat is shown by the Mount Olive base hit column, which totaled but seven.

Gillespie got 17 hits off Sudhoff, including a home run by the former University of Illinois boy, Bycroft.

Gerald Shea, the former Cardinal receiver, caught a great game for Gillespie and slammed the ball out in great fashion. Shea's stickwork has been a feature of every game in which he has participated.

NEW FIELD FOR BENE'S BLUES.

Jake Bene, who has directed the fortunes of more winning semi-professional baseball nines than any manager in the West, has acquired the Cahokia (Ill.) baseball property and will inaugurate the Cahokia season next Sunday afternoon by placing a team in the field under the name of the Cahokia Blues.

The opponents of the Blues will be the Rice-Stix team, the clever aggregation that has been playing such excellent ball lately.

Bene is anxious to give Cahokia a good nine and he has gone to no little trouble to do so.

Any team desiring games with the Cahokia Blues will be accommodated by addressing Jake Bene, 620 Locust street.

Those White Sox are certainly marvels. Although they have not a .300 hitter on the team they have practically won about as many games as have Cleveland, Philadelphia and New York. In 14 games during the months of June they were outbatted, yet they won 10 of the 14 games. Imagine Cleveland turning a trick like that.

EVANS AND HALL FOR CANOE CHAMPS

St. Louis Paddlers Will Try for the American Championships at Lake Waupaca.

Frank Hall and Gwynne Evans, winners of the Surbled Cup emblematic of the double canoe championship of St. Louis, will enter the championships of the Western Canoe Association, which will be held at Waupaca, Wis., Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2.

Frank Hall made the announcement Thursday and said that they, Evans and himself, would use the same canoe in which they won their local title at Creve Coeur.

Hall and Evans have an excellent chance to win this event. Both are light men, an advantage that cannot be gainsaid in a canoe race.

RIPPLES of the Ring

Whether Joe Walcott goes to Milwaukee to box Jack Dougherty once more depends upon the conditions imposed by the Beer City lad. Walcott, who is champion, has agreed to box Dougherty under the same conditions prevailing in their recent combat, but Dougherty wants the colored lad to make a weight which he cannot do with justice to himself.

Another heavyweight pugilist has just announced his retirement from the ring. He is Marvin Hart of Louisville, who claimed the title relinquished by Jim Jeffries after the latter had quit the game. Hart has never been the same man since he was beaten by Tommy Burns, the Western fighter, at Los Angeles, Cal., several months ago. He had decided to continue fighting this fall, but as his wife advised him to quit the ring he thought the matter over and finally agreed to do so. With Hart out of it this leaves "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, Sam Berger, Al Kaufmann, Gus Ruhlin, Tommy Burns, Mike Schreck, Fred Cooley, Bob Fitzsimmons and Sandy Ferguson to battle for the world's championship title.

The meeting of Kid Herman and Benny Yanger in Chicago has put another complexion on the proposed Nelson-Herman match. Morris Levy, who has the September date, says he thought he had completed the Britt-Herman match, but the details, which could not be settled until he met the men in the East, have not been completed. He will try to bring Britt and Nelson together.

Jimmy Britt, the California lightweight champion, has arrived in San Francisco. As soon as Jimmy stepped off the train he hunted up Jimmy Coffroth, the fight promoter of California, and, after shaking hands with him, said: "Jim, try and induce Terry McGovern to come out here and fight me in August or September. I would like to meet him in a 20-round bout. I can beat him surely in a long battle. I held him too cheaply in our bout in New York."
